FOR LAW AND ORDER

Good Citizens Demand That They Shall Control.

RUFFIANISM SHALL NOT RULE

The Great Mass of Law Abiding Residents of East Liverpool are Determined That Ruffians and Ruffianism Shall be Relegated to a Back Seat—Justice Must and Shall be Meted Out to Offenders.

The late horrible cutting affray in East Liverpool has awakened the great mass of law-abiding citizens to the fact that ruffianism must be suppressed in our midst, and that toughs and blackguards, men who draw and use a deadly weapon upon the slightest provocation, must have such punishment dealt out to them as will teach them a lesson which will keep them in bounds for all time to come. If the aforesaid ruffians must gulp down liquid fire in the shape of intoxicants, in order that their cowardly hearts may be wrought up to such a pitch as to cause them to attempt to take human life, then must this worthless class be taught that drunkenness is no excuse for crime; but, upon the contrary, is rather an aggravation, and must be so construed by the law. Let ruffianism run rampant in brothels and saloons, and it will not be long until the inmates and habitués of such places do deadly work upon innocent and unoffending passers by.

The majesty of the law asserts that all men are innocent until they are proven guilty. If Patrick Densmore is an innocent man, then should he go free, without the shadow of a stain upon his life or character, in so far as this special case is concerned. If he be proven guilty, as witnesses for the prosecution have already testified, then he should receive the full penalty of an outraged law. Even if Poyser recovers from the injuries sustained, and Patrick Densmore be proven to be his assailant, as already testified under oath, then Patrick Densmore should receive such a sentence as would prove a warning to all ruffians who take the law in their own hands. The assault upon Poyser and his friends was an awfully vicious one, and the evident intention of the assailant was to do murder. It was not his fault that Poyser does not now rest in the grave.

Roughs and toughs are sure to assemble in every prosperous city, and are sure to make their presence known in a hurtful manner. But the law can control them, and it is the part of every good citizen to see that the law is carried into effect.

Let me illustrate the bearing that the conduct of these toughs has upon the young boys in this city, by the portrayal of an actual incident which came under the writer's notice on Sunday morning. Three boys were assembled upon the sidewalk of one of our prominent thoroughfares. The eldest boy was about 13 years of age, his companions 11 or 12. The first designated had evidently been reading about the late cutting affray, and had provided himself with a knife, pattering closely after the weapon described in the daily press. The youngster held the ugly weapon in front of the face of one of his companions and thus addressed him:

"I'll cut your eye out with the first thrust, and then I'll rip you up the back with the next one."

The nearer approach of the writer caused the boys to cease from their delineation of the late trouble; but the words and actions demonstrate how closely our youth are identified with the good and evil which is daily occurring in our midst.

And, by the way, do you know, oh ye good citizens, that the rough and tough element are a nuisance from every standpoint. They make undesirable citizens in time of peace, and they are abject cowards in time of war. Every old soldier of the late war, they who did their duty in the ranks, will coincide with me in this statement.

And now let me speak a few words, words which can be made to effect wonderful good in the direction of law and order and good conduct in our midst. Go to the polls at our primaries; turn out en masse; and don't be satisfied even with this; drum your neighbors up and take them with you; let every man who loves his city, and who wishes it to prosper, to bloom and blossom like the rose, attend the primaries, and see to it that good men and true, men of upright character and clean lives, are placed in office, and then, and then only, will the law, in its majesty, be enforced in East Liverpool. And the true women in the city have a part to perform in this battle for right against wrong. See to it, ladies, that your husbands, fathers and sons attend to this duty. You are a power in the family and social circle. You can be, if you so desire, a power for great good in the municipal elections, even if you never cast a personal ballot. Exercise this power in the avenue pointed out, and leave the rest in the hands of Him who doeth all things well.

LAW AND ORDER.

HE HIT HARD.

Reverend Huston Speaks His Mind on the Liquor Question.

At the First Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday night, Reverend Huston, pastor, addressed an immense audience, taking as his subject the liquor traffic, denouncing it in unstinted terms, and holding it responsible, in a marked degree, for the crime and disorder existing in our midst. The speaker further spoke of the responsibility resting upon Christian citizens of East Liverpool, asserting that God would not hold them blameless for such a condition of affairs. He further held that it is the bounden duty of true men and good citizens to place in nomination the right kind of men for municipal offices, men who know the law and will enforce it to the letter. He urged all good citizens to make their presence known at the primary elections, and thus aid in the matter of right and reform. The reverend gentleman spoke of the late horrible cutting affray in Dew Drop alley, and painted such a picture of the scene as to cause a decided sensation among his hearers, who were listening to his curt and incisive sentences with wrapt attention. One prominent and aggressive citizen remarked, at the close of the services: "That was the right kind of an address. It was pithy and to the point; and, mark my words, it will be conducive of good and will aid in forcing an issue which has long been needed in East Liverpool."

THE RECHABITES.

They Were Out in Force on Sunday Morning.

St. Stephen's church was crowded on Sunday morning, and the Rechabites, Favorite and Liberty tents, turned out in strong numbers to hear Reverend O'Meara address them. The text chosen was from the fifth chapter and sixteenth verse of Paul's letter to the Ephesians—"Redeeming the time." After the beautiful preparatory service, the rector addressed his audience in a truly eloquent manner, conducive of great good, if the subject matter could but be woven and warped into their every day lives and conduct. The speaker painted, in words of burning earnestness, the selfish and unselfish life of individuals, warning his hearers against the first named, and urging them to receive and accept the latter, patterning after the life and character of the blessed Jesus, the very essence and embodiment of unselfishness and love for humanity. He welcomed the Rechabites in warm terms of welcome, praised them for the good work already accomplished by and through their society, and urged them to renewed efforts for the redemption of souls, through Jesus. The occasion will long be remembered with pleasure by those who were present, and there is not the shadow of a doubt that good seed was sown, which, in God's good time, will bring forth an abundant harvest.

SENT TO HER HOME.

Mrs. William Smith Found Humane People in This City.

Mrs. William Smith, the Allegheny woman whose story was given in the News Review Saturday, was sent to Pittsburgh by Trustee Beardmore after she had been provided with the first square meal she had had in several days. It was further learned that her husband had sold his skiff to a Wellsville man, and after asking him for money and being refused she sat on the bank all of Friday night in that town and was threatened with rough treatment by some of the toughs. Fortunately for these brutes the police did not hear of their threats.

Mrs. Smith is an English woman and lived with her husband at Walker's. She was so weak when she reached this city that she could hardly speak and her shoes were worn through, exposing her feet, which were badly blistered.

CAPTURED A PRIZE.

A Liverpool Horse Won at Lisbon Saturday.

Bell Shackett, the horse owned by Lyle Ashbaugh, of this city, was a winner at the Lisbon races Saturday. Bell Shackett was one of five horses entered in one of the races for a $100 purse, and defeated the others by winning three straight heats. The time was slow, being 2:38. A number of East Liverpool people saw the race.

FOR A FOOTBALL TEAM

Efforts Being Made by the Association Boys.

GOOD PLAYERS CAN BE HAD

The Coming Battle Between the Association Team and Shamrocks—Base Ball Pools—Big Events Bunched—Local Sporting News in General.

A move is now on which may result in East Liverpool having a foot ball team, and one that will be hard to beat.

Members of the Young Men's Christian association are urging the formation of a team, and have their eye on some good players, who could be secured with little trouble and not much expense. Among these are Brennen and Sneider, of the Ohio State university, Stevenson, of the West Virginia university, Forner, of Bethany. These are players who have shown good qualities and who would play well together. The team may be organized, although it is yet but talk among the association boys. East Liverpool should have the club, and the boys will no doubt find plenty of backing if they make the attempt.

The clerks have accepted the challenge of the Commercial, and the public may look for another interesting game soon.

The Goodwin notary team announce their willingness to play ball with any pottery team in the city for blood or cash.

Probably there are few aware of the existence of a base ball pool in the city, but it is known that there are several operating at the present time. One young man who has chosen Baltimore for this week, but lamented because he did not secure the Cleveland team, said last night that he was more than eight dollars ahead of the deal.

The Young Men's Christian association field day has been decided upon for Sept. 5, at Columbian park. Invitations to all the associations in this section have been sent out and a big crowd is expected. The necessary apparatus for pole vaulting and other gymnastic exercises has been erected, and the boys are taking daily practice.

Those interested in amusements are remarking that the big events of the season will be bunched. With the Lisbon races on Aug. 29, Buffalo Bill on Aug. 30, Labor Day Sept. 2, Young Men's Christian association field day probably Sept. 5, and dedication of the new central school building on Sept. 6. There will be plenty to occupy the spare time of Liverpool people.

There was a hot glove fight in a private club room of East Liverpool on Saturday night. The affair was brought off in consequence of a dispute over the respective pugilistic merits of the rival candidates for fistie honors. The affair was conducted strictly under Marquis of Queensbury rules and was eventually decided a draw.

The next game between the Young Men's Christian Association club and the Shamrocks promises to be an exceedingly exciting and interesting one. Each club has now a victory on their respective records, and the third contest may settle the question of supremacy. It was originally understood that but three games would be played, but now the assertion is made that a series of five games will be played. Be this as it may, the coming game is sure of strong patronage, as each club has a lot of backers and friends, and they will no doubt be on hand to cheer their favorites to victory. We understand that the management of the respective organizations are doing everything in their power to strengthen their clubs. Let the motto of the contestants be "fair play, and may the best and most skillful players win."

TRAPPE SUSPENDED.

He Receives Official Notice From League Officials.

Frank Trappe, the Cleveland rider who was recently made a member of the C. C. C. C. racing team, has received official notice of his suspension and for 30 days he can not ride in races sanctioned by the League of American Wheelmen. The L. A. W. Bulletin this week publishes a notice of his suspension because of the Dayton races on July 30.

This will have no effect on the winning of the cup by Hale, Trappe and Irons at Pittsburgh, as he had not at that time been notified.

The Labor Day people will have to secure the sanction of the L. A. W. if they expect C. C. C. C. racers in the contests on Labor Day.

Among the racers in the Lisbon tournament will be two East End boys, E. H. Laughlin and Charles Herbert. It is possible that other East End riders will enter in the contests.

RAIN IN SHEETS.

The City Stormswept Last Night—Little Damage Done.

The storm struck the city about 10 o'clock, and the rain fell in sheets, and was blown in doorways and windows by fierce gusts of wind, while the streams from the gutters on several of the hill streets were too large to be confined to the curb, and covered the roadway. A few signs were blown down, one or two awnings ripped, and several trees broken, but so far as could be learned no serious damage resulted from the storm.

In the east, and especially in Pittsburgh, there was considerable loss of life and property, the former being mostly on the river.

STILL LOCKED UP.

The Street Sweeper Question Remains Unsettled.

The new street sweeper was still in the possession of the local freight agent at noon today, and Agent Hershey is still waiting patiently for the documents to make him the temporary owner of it.

As stated exclusively in the News Review Saturday the sweeper was refused to Agent Hershey, the sole cause being that he had no bill of lading for the machine. He telegraphed the Brooklyn street sweeper company, but until noon had received no reply to the message. It was intended to give the sweeper a trial Saturday evening, but the sudden hitch caused a postponement.

The new sweeper, although an ordinary, simple looking affair, looks like a serviceable machine, and will no doubt do the work claimed for it.

IN SQUIRES COURT.

A Few Cases to Disturb the Justices—Wet and Dry Goods.

In Squire Manley's court Harry Meador, Sr., sues Patrick Scullen for $7.30 and Elwood Posey for $30.90. Both cases are set for trial at 7 o'clock on Thursday morning.

Before Squire Rose, H. E. Porter sues M. Bradshaw for $100.04, for dry goods purchased. Trial at 8 o'clock Thursday morning.

Martin Mason versus William Pilgrim, Sr., is a suit for $30 for horse hire dating back several years. It is being tried before Squire Morley and a jury of Edward Smith, John Kerr, C. A. Fowler, E. M. Crosser, Charles Berg and William Cartwright this afternoon.

AN IMMERSION.

East End People See a Religious Novelty.

When it was announced in the Second Methodist Episcopal church, East End, yesterday, that one of the new members would be immersed in the Ohio river at 6 o'clock, it created no little excitement and the result was that curiosity took a crowd of at least 150 people to the river shore to see the novel sight.

The applicant for this form of baptism, a young lady of East End, was dipped in the river by Rev. R. F. Sears and the usual ceremonies gone through with and then the crowd went to their various homes.

BROKE HIS NECK.

An Unknown Man Fell Off the Toronto Bridge on Saturday.

Late Saturday night or early Sunday morning an Italian laborer from New Cumberland fell off the bridge above Toronto and broke his neck.

At least that is the accepted theory, as the man was found dead under the bridge yesterday morning. As he had three half pint bottles of whiskey on his clothes it may be that he was drunk and was struck by a passing train. Several people from this city saw the remains of the man yesterday, and a large crowd gathered about the bridge after the body was found.

STOLE THE OARS.

Sneak Thieves at Work On the West Virginia Side.

Late last night some sneak thief got away with two pairs of oars on the West Virginia side of the river.

The oars were the property of Frank Finley and Henry Riley, and one pair was stolen from a blacksmith shop while Riley's disappeared from beneath the window alongside of the bed while he was sleeping. The parties are likely the ones who stole a skiff from Willard Mercer on the previous Saturday night, and which is still missing.

OFFICIALS WERE HERE

All Harmonious Respecting the New Bridge.

WORK WILL START BEFORE LONG

Representatives of the United States Government in East Liverpool, Accompanied by Representatives of the Coal Exchange and Harbor Committee.

Affairs are assuming a tangible and business-like shape in connection with the contemplated new bridge, to be erected at this point. This morning about 10 o'clock, Lieutenant Colonel Amos Stickney, of Cincinnati; Major Lockwood, of Louisville and Major H. L. Hoxie, of Pittsburgh, representing the government of the United States, in company with Captain John F. Dravo, of Reaver, and Captain Hugh Moren, of Pittsburgh, representing harbor lines, met in the office of J. E. McDonald and inspected plans and plans of the contemplated new structure. The party afterwards adjourned to the river bank, at the foot of College street, where Engineer Curry and Mr. McDonald supplied the representatives assembled with all desired information.

We have it from reliable sources that everything was harmonious in the meeting, that the representatives of the government are fully satisfied with the condition of affairs, while the members of the coal exchange and river representatives have not a word of protest to enter, in any shape, manner or form.

There can be nothing definite given as to when active work will be commenced on the bridge, further than that it will be in the very near future. There is no romance about the affair, however, as suggested by doubting Thomases. The structure will be erected and will prove to be a decidedly good thing for East Liverpool and the surrounding district.

TWO DEATHS.

Despondency and Drink In One Case at Lisbon.

Special to NEWS REVIEW.
LISBON, Aug. 19.—About 9 o'clock last night, at the residence of George Arter, a man named Martin Kraft, of Wheeling, died very suddenly. Deceased was about 40 years of age, and leaves a wife and two children. He came here to secure work in a cigar manufactory and took to drinking heavily. His wife has been notified. He is said to have been the son-in-law of one of Wheeling's wealthiest tobacco manufacturers.

Will Hamilton was seized with cramps while bathing at Alliance yesterday and was drowned. His father and mother reside at Gavers, some four miles from Lisbon, and the remains were taken there for interment.

The worst accident of the 12 or 15 that have occurred at the Lisbon tin mill, resulted this morning in Tom Redding, a young man who came last week from Warren, having the clothes blown from his body and receiving dangerous burns. The explosion was a terrific one.

TO THE INFIRMARY.

Jack, the Ripper, Goes to the Poorhouse a Second Time.

An old man known as Jack, the Ripper, who has resided some distance out of town along the California Hollow road, was sent to the county infirmary yesterday for the second time.

Just what his real name is cannot be learned. He was injured on the street railway about a year ago and went to the infirmary for several months. He has actually forgotten his own name.

Saturday night the patrol was called to the brewery, where he was found in a stupor, partly from the effects of liquor and partly from illness. He was taken to city hall and yesterday Trustee Beardmore provided him with a doctor and later at his own request gave him papers of admission to the poorhouse and started him on his journey.

OFF For Canton.

Mr. Ed J. Owens and wife, Chris Horton and wife, Miss Corns and some other ladies, left this afternoon for Canton to take part in the state lodge convention of the Sons of St. George. A very enjoyable time is expected. Our townsman, Mr. Ed Owens, will be installed as worthy grand president of the state of Ohio.

Poyser's Condition.

The condition of William Poyser, who was stabbed by Patrick Densmore a week ago, and who, as noted elsewhere in the News Review today, was able to have his deposition taken Saturday night, is slightly better, and his physicians are hopeful.

A GREAT TRUTH.

Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, president
of the board of police commissioners
of New York, defends his enforcing of
the Sunday laws in the September
Forum by these wise words:

"The spirit shown by the men and
the newspapers who denounce us for
enforcing the law is simply one manifestation of the feeling which brings
about and is responsible for lynching,
and for all the varieties of Whitecap
outrage. The men who head a lynching party, and the officers who fail to protect criminals threatened with
lynching, always advance, as their excuse, that public sentiment sanctions
their action. The chief offenders
often insist that they have taken such
summary action because they fear
lest the law be not enforced against
the offender. In other words, they put public sentiment ahead of law in
the first place; and in the second they
offer, as a partial excuse for so doing,
the fact that too often laws are not
enforced by the men elected or appointed to enforce them. The only possible outcome of such an attitude
is lawlessness, which gradually grows
until it becomes mere anarchy. The
one all important element in good
citizenship in our country is obedience
to law. The greatest crimes that can
be committed against our government
are to put on the statute books, or to allow to remain there, laws that are
not meant to be enforced, and to fail
to enforce the laws that exist. Many
of the demagogues who have denounced us have reproached us especially because we took away "the poor
man's beer," and have announced that
law or no law, the poor man had a right to his beer on Sunday if he wished it. These gentlemen, when they preach such doctrine, are simply preaching lawlessness. If the poor
man has a right to break the law so
as to get beer on Sunday, he has a right to break the law so as to get bread on any day. It is a good deal more important to the poor man
that he should get fed on week days
than that he should get drunk on Sundays. The people who try to teach
him that he has a right to break the
law on one day to take beer are doing
their best to prepare him for breaking
the law some other day to take bread.
But as a matter of fact all the talk about the law being enforced chiefly
at the expense of the poor man is the veriest nonsense and hypocrisy. We took especial care to close the bars of
the big hotels. We shut every barroom on Fifth avenue as carefully as
we shut every barroom on Avenue A.

SEVEN WERE DROWNED

Fatal Outing of Three Families
at Ocean City, Md.

WOMEN CAPSIZED A SAILBOAT.

They Got Scared When the Boat Carried and Rushed to One Side—Two of the Party Rescued—Heroic Efforts to Save
the Others.

OCEAN CITY, Md., Aug. 19.—By the
overloading of a small pleasure boat an entire family has been drowned and
two other families are in mourning.
A party of farmers from the neighborhood of Frankford and Selbyville, Del.,
had a fish fry on Grey's creek, a branch
of the Isle of Wight bay, with bathing,
fishing and amusements. William Hud-
son carried a party of nine out sailing,
and as the boat was about to come back
the women of the party jumped screaming
on the high side, capsizing the little craft, which was hardly large enough to carry five persons.

The following seven persons were drowned: William Storr, aged 43 years, Philadelphia; Laura Storr, his wife, aged 35, and his daughters, Ida May, aged 16,
and Eva, aged 14; Myrtle Stevens, aged 16,
a daughter of Joshua Stevens of Selbyville; Lina Hall, aged 19, and her sister, Lulu Hall, aged 14, daughters of Elisha Hall of near Frankford.

The capsizing occurred within 200 yards of the shore and in water seven feet deep. Mr. Storr had only one hand and was blind in one eye, but was an expert swimmer. He succeeded in getting his two daughters on the bottom of the boat and was getting his wife
when the girls became scared and slipped off the boat and went to their parents and together the four perished.

Hudson, who was sailing the boat, got the Hall girls on the boat and was trying to save Miss Stevens, when they slipped off and were drowned before he could get to them. Two other young ladies, who were in the boat, were rescued by a fisherman who put off from the shore as the boat capsized.

Five Killed and Ten Injured.

MAHAFFEY, Aug. 19.—Five men were overcome and died from the effects of inhaling carbonic gas and ten others were affected by the deadly fumes at the big cut at McGees, on the new line of the Pittsburgh and Eastern railroad.

The dead are: William Stevens, aged 30 years, married; Philadelphia; William Buck, aged 40 years, married, cranman; Nunda, N. Y.; James Quinn, aged 35 years, married, assistant foreman; Midland, Pa.; Charles Harrison, single, Larimer, Pa.; Antonio Keysare, Hungary.

Howard Disposed of in Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 19.—Detective Geyer of Philadelphia and W. A. Gary of the Fidelity Insurance company are here again. The former says that he has discovered that when Holmes left this city last year with the two Pitzel children he purchased only two half-fare tickets. This adds strength to his first theory, he says, that Howard Pit-zel, the boy, was disposed of in this city.

Turkey on Her Dignity.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 19.—There is much irritation in official circles here on account of the recent events on the Bulgarian frontier, and instructions have been forwarded to the Ottoman representatives to request the powers to canton Bulgaria against permitting a recurrence.

Lost Affection Valued at $20,000.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 19.—Mrs. Annie Barclay has sued Margaret Jane Weigold for $20,000 damages for alienating
the affections of the plaintiff's husband. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant followed about her husband for two years to accomplish her purpose.

A Bad Storm at Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 19.—A severe storm swept over this city about 10 o'clock
last night, doing great damage to property and shipping. The big excursion boat Daotah was sunk. Patrick Shay, fireman at the West End street car company's plant, was carried through the air 100 feet and badly injured.

Holmes Bloody Castle Burning.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—H. H. Holmes'
"castle," at Sixty-third and Wallace streets, which is said to have been the scene of numerous murders by the owner, was discovered on fire this morning. It is now believed that it will be entirely consumed, and adjacent property is in great danger.

Alleged Counterfeiters Arrested.

ALTOONA, Aug. 19.—United States
Marshal Griffin has brought to this city
Charles Stans and W. G. Spencer of Flora, Indiana county; B. F. Wright of Burnside and Adam Banks of Punctawney, all charged with passing counterfeit coin.

Heir to Vast Estates.

PLATTSBURGH, N.Y., Aug. 19.—William Foxwell, whose family resides here, has won his title to the estates of the famous Harris Hartley in Cornwall, England. The estate is worth over $2,000,000.

Killed by a Live Wire.

YORK, Pa., Aug. 19.—Charles V. Anthony, an employee of the York Street railway, has been almost instantly killed by coming in contact with a live wire.

An Alleged Forger Caught.

TAMPA, Fla., Aug. 19.—Hugh S. Mc-Nulty has been arrested here by the police on a description sent out by the chief of police of Chattanooga, Tenn., charging him with forgery.

Shot by the Girl's Father.

CHESTER, Pa., Aug. 19.—Jenereose
Colongo, an Italian, has been shot through the heart by Emilese Volpe.
He found Colongo acting improperly with his daughter, a 15-year-old girl.

A Murderer Lynched in Florida.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Aug. 19.—
Samuel Lewis, murderer of three men, has been taken from jail at Juno by a mob of masked men and lynched.

Guests Received by Firemen.

DENVER, Aug. 19.—The fire in the Clifton was extinguished with but slight damage. All the guests were rescued by the firemen with ladders.

A HUNT FOR GOLD.

Philadelphians Searching for a Dutch Sloop, Sunk a Century Ago.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—The steam tug John E. Mehrer, having on board a syndicate of 15 capitalists who have undertaken the task of locating and raising the British sloop of war De Braak, which was sunk by a sudden squall off the Delaware breakwater over a century ago, laden with a cargo of Spanish gold, has left here. The De Braak was a British sloop of war, captured from the Dutch.

A short time before her foundering
she captured a Spanish ship from La Plata bound to Spain with a cargo of gold from the mines. Soon afterward,
according to the reports of that time,
she overhauled the St. Francis Xavier and transferred much precious metal to her own hold. The De Braak made for Cape Henlopen for water and went down in a sudden squall. Some of her crew escaped, but the majority perished.
Reports then became frequent of the existence of the treasure, and ever since then they have been current.

Ransom Illegally Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Acting Attorney General Conrad has decided that the appointment of Hon. Matt Ransom as minister to Mexico was illegal, as at the time of his appointment he was a member of the United States senate
from North Carolina. The constitution expressly stipulates that a senator or congressman cannot be appointed to any civil office the emoluments of which have been increased while he was a member of congress. The salary of the minister to Mexico was increased $5,000
while Mr. Ransom was a senator.

Suicide of Coxy's Unknown.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 19.—"Dr." A. P.
Bozaro, who committed suicide in this city by taking morphine, in the presence of his wife, traveled with Coxy's army last year as "Smith, the Unknown." He was a man of striking personalities, having long, black, curly hair. He claimed to have been an Indian medicine man. On the disbanding of the army he came to Cleveland and began the practice of medicine. He left a long letter, in which he related numerous earthly woes,
among them being domestic troubles.

One Killed and Two Injured.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Ontario and Western, train No. 20, westbound, crashed into two box cars which projected from a siding over the main tracks at Bernhart's bay, near Oneida.
Fireman J. Cooper was instantly killed.
Engineer Kinney and Head Brakeman
J. Breed were badly injured.

All Caused by a Bad Negro.

MONTICELLO, Ark., Aug. 19.—While Jailer Wilson was feeding the prisoners here one, a negro, secured his pistol.
Three others escaped. The negro badly wounded James Bennett, who attempted to stop him. A posse caught two of the prisoners, and a crowd are searching for the other two.

Money for Cudahy's Creditors.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—The sum of $378, 000 has been distributed among the creditors of John Cudahy, being the first payment, 25 per cent, made in discharge of the liabilities scheduled against the noted speculator several years ago.

Will Be Coached by Stars.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Butterworth, Yale's great fullback, has been engaged to coach the University of California football team for its annual game with Stanford University. The latter team will be coached by Walter Camp.

Old Divorce Case Settled.

FARGO, N. D., Aug. 19.—The divorce suit brought by Edward Williams of Brooklyn against his wife, Katie Williams, has been settled by a joint decree and an allowance of $5,000 alimony to his wife, after years in court.

He Won the Wager Easily.

BOSTON, Aug. 19.—John Walsh of San Francisco, who has tramped across the country, walking every step of the way on a wager of $500, has made the distance within 100 days, a whole week ahead of time.

Commander Watson Recovering.

been received from Lieutenant Harris
at Guayaquil stating that Commander Watson was rapidly recovering and will soon be ready to assume command of the Ranger.

Civil Service Extended.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The extension of the classified civil service to practical all the entire work of the agricultural department is formally announced in a circular issued by Secretary Morton.

One of the Christian Robbers Caught.

A FIGHT FOR CONTROL.

Factions Will Struggle For Supremacy at Springfield.

EACH SIDE IS MAKING CLAIMS.

Thurman Men Control the State Executive Committee and Brice Men the State Central Committee—Campbell Endorsed by County Conventions, but Won't Serve.

SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 19.—Since the selection of delegates in the different counties it is evident that there will be a close fight between the free silver men and their opponents on the organization of the Democratic state convention and the platform here tomorrow and Wednesday. The free silver men control the state executive committee, of which Allen W. Thurman is chairman, and the Brice men control the state central committee, of which M. A.
Smalley is chairman. The free silver men claim that the returns from the county conventions show they have a majority of the delegates, but this is not conceded by the Brice men, who certainly have the better organization.

At the district meetings at 5 p. m.
tomorrow it will be determined who will control the convention on Wednesday. If the free silver men secure the organization it is believed they will nominate Colonel James Kilbourne of Columbus, Thurman's candidate for governor.

A Cincinnati special says: When the returns from the county conventions showed such general endorsement of ex-Governor James E. Campbell for the nomination of governor at the Democratic state convention next week, he was seen at his home in Hamilton. He stated most emphatically that he could not and would not accept the nomination if it was tendered him unanimously.
His only reason for declining was his present financial condition, which made it impossible for him to devote his time to politics.

His friends have secured a large supply of lithograph pictures of him and badges and mean to nominate him.
They say they will see that all his expenses are borne. It is understood that ex-Governor Campbell favors the nomination of Colonel James Kilbourne of Columbus, who is the candidate of the Thurmans and the free silver men. The Mahoning delegation will present the name of John H. Clark. The Hamilton county delegation voted to present the name of Judge Hiram D. Peck. It is said that John H. Thomas is a candidate for senator against Brice and is not wanting the gubernatorial nomination.

The returns from county conventions
indicate unexpected victories for free silver. Some county conventions adopted resolutions condemning Senator Brice's financial views. Some counties that selected free silver delegates endorsed Brice, and nearly all endorsed James E. Campbell for governor.

The counties selecting free silver delegates were Lake, Lawrence, Seneca, Muskingum, Medina, Fayette, Highland, Vinton and Jackson. For "sound money," Madison, Portage and Summit. The delegates from Auglaize, Delaware, Cuyahoga and Trumbull counties are divided.

Two Sunstrokes at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 19.—Two sunstrokes are reported here, John Strickler, a hod carrier, and George W. Britte, aged 65, retired, are the victims. It is believed neither can recover.

Opened in Columbus Today.

COLUMBUS, Aug. 19.—The national meeting of the Deutscher Kriegerbund opened in this city today. About 4,000 visitors and 1,000 delegates are in attendance.

SMALL OHIO HAPPENINGS.

An umbrella factory at Norwalk is seeking a location at Marion.
Sixteen thousand people attended the G. A. R. reunion at Harrisonville, the largest ever held in the county.

West Union and Cedar Hills have the one lady mail carrier to all Adams county.
Miss Josie Bayless is the carrier.
A mad dog belonging to Dr. Welch of Delaware bit ten other dogs, all of which are at large. The mad dog was shot.

John Hoeffel of North Amherst became despondent because his wife sued him for divorce and shot himself through the heart.

Mrs. John Fischer, aged 70, and her son John, aged 40, were killed by a New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio train at Coblenz.

Mamie Clark attempted to commit suicide at her boardinghouse in Columbus.
She was despondent over her separation
from her child.

The Ohio Cigar company of Hillsboro
was sold to Mr. A. C. Lewis of Cincinnati, as trustee for a syndicate, for $12,000, one-third cash and two-thirds in payments of one and two years.

John Sturgeon, a farmer, who allowed his horse to stand at a hitchpost in Portsmouth for 14 hours while John accumulated a jag, was sent to the workhouse for cruelty to animals.

Two gangs of tramps entrenched near Marion have been broken up by police, and several arrested. The vagrants in-sulted women, and one night got drunk
and paraded naked through the streets.

While H. Schwenck was raising an old burn at Buryus the structure gave way, burying himself and Miss Dagen, a relative. Miss Dagen is thought to be dangerously injured.

The Central Coal company of Toledo has started a cut in coal that is liable to bring on a first-class war between Toledo dealers. They are now selling coal at $4.50 per ton, a cut of 50 cents a ton.

Henry Ludeman, a prominent farmer living near Defiance, was killed while grinding a plowpoint on a stone driven by a wind engine. A piece of metal broke off and struck Ludeman in the forehead, killing him instantly.

Andrew Stile, living near Toledo, stole three bushels of potatoes. He was taken before Justice of the Peace Charles Kennedy, who gave him 30 days in jail and fined him $100 and costs. As he is unable to pay the fine, this will keep him in jail for 222 days.

One of the changes in the Central Union Telephone company, when they move into their new quarters at Toledo,
is the removal of district headquarters
from Columbus to Toledo. The district includes Ohio and part of Indiana and Michigan.

A GREAT TRUTH.

Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, president
of the board of police commissioners
of New York, defends his enforcing of
the Sunday laws in the September
Forum by these wise words:

"The spirit shown by the men and
the newspapers who denounce us for
enforcing the law is simply one manifestation of the feeling which brings
about and is responsible for lynching,
and for all the varieties of Whitecap
outrage. The men who head a lynching
party, and the officers who fail to protect criminals threatened with
lynching, always advance, as their excuse, that public sentiment sanctions
their action. The chief offenders
often insist that they have taken such
summary action because they fear
lest the law be not enforced against
put public sentiment ahead of law in
the first place; and in the second they
offer, as a partial excuse for so doing,
the fact that too often laws are not
enforced by the men elected or appointed to enforce them. The only
possible outcome of such an attitude
is lawlessness, which gradually grows
until it becomes mere anarchy. The
one all important element in good
citizenship in our country is obedience
to law. The greatest crimes that can
be committed against our government
are to put on the statute books, or to
allow to remain there, laws that are
not meant to be enforced, and to fail
to enforce the laws that exist. Many
of the demagogues who have de-
nounced us have reproached us especially because we took away "the poor
man's beer," and have announced that
law or no law, the poor man had a
right to his beer on Sunday if he
preach such doctrine, are simply
man has a right to break the law so
right to break the law so as to
get bread on any day. It is a good
deal more important to the poor man
that he should get fed on week days
than that he should get drunk on
him that he has a right to break the
law on one day to take beer are doing
their best to prepare him for breaking
the law some other day to take bread.
But as a matter of fact all the talk
at the expense of the poor man is the
took especial care to close the bars of
the big hotels. We shut every bar-
room on Fifth avenue as carefully as
we shut every barroom on Avenue A.

Party Rescued—Heroic Efforts to Save
the Others.

OCEAN CITY, Md., Aug. 19.—By the
overloading of a small pleasure boat an
entire family has been drowned and
two other families are in mourning.
A party of farmers from the neighborhood of Frankford and Selbyville, Del.,
had a fish fry on Grey's creek, a branch
of the Isle of Wight bay, with bathing,
fishing and amusements. William Hud-
son carried a party of nine out sailing,
and as the boat was about to come back

The National Committeemen Give Their Preferences.

THEY WANT A SHORT STRUGGLE.

Republicans Unanimously For a Brief Fight—Democrats Favor It Unless the Free Silver Element Predominates—The Vote as Secured by a Paper in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Concerning the views of national committeemen on the question of a short or long campaign, the Times-Herald today says:

Thirty-eight national committeemen, 29 Democrats and 18 Republicans responded to questions asked by the Times-Herald concerning the policy of holding a short presidential campaign. The vote is now full enough to clearly indicate the results of the meetings which will shortly be held by the two national committees.

The Republican national committee will declare in favor of a short presidential campaign.

The Democratic National committee will decide in favor of a short presidential campaign, unless the free silver element predominates in the councils of the committee. The vote so far as it has been received and recorded by the Times-Herald is as follows:

Republican national committee—for a short campaign, 14; against a short campaign, 3; non-committal, 1. Total vote 18.

Democratic national committee—for a short campaign, 10; against a short campaign, 6; non-committal, 4. Total vote 20.

Report on the Columbia's Injuries.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Acting Secretary McAdoo has made public the report of the board, consisting of Commodore Selfridge, Constructor Bowles and Chief Engineer Farmer, appointed to examine the cruiser Columbia as to damages she received when docked at Southampton. The report says that the docking "was generally careless and unskillful, as shown by entire neglect of the most elementary precautions to secure the uniform support of the keel of the ship."

A Monument to the Old Kaiser.

BERLIN, Aug. 19.—There was splendid weather Sunday, which was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the battle of Gravelotte, which had so decisive an influence upon the Franco-Prussian war. The anniversary was signalized here by the laying of the foundation stone of the national monument to the late Emperor William I. by his grandson, Emperor William II. in the presence of many of the German sovereigns and other dignitaries.

The Pope Rescued Congratulations.

ROME, Aug. 19.—Sunday, which is the feast day of his patron saint, Joachim, the pope received the congratulations of the cardinals, and of the nobility, etc. He invited his visitors into his library and discoursed for an hour upon the revival of religion in Italy, and upon various Catholic questions. He appeared to be in good health.

Hail Did Much Damage.

CUSTER CITY, Pa., Aug. 19.—Hailstones fell here during the storm measuring six inches in circumference. Considerable damage was done to windows in the place. Two green houses up the west branch suffered considerable damage. Many fruit and shade trees were ruined.

China Trifling With the Commission.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Times telegraphs as follows: "The consular expedition to Ku-Cheng has proved futile. China's attitude in trifling with this serious question is likely to lead to further trouble."

Father and Daughter Perished.

ELGIN, Ill., Aug. 19.—Frank Kazar and his 4-year-old daughter, Sylvia, have been burned to death in a fire which destroyed their residence and several other buildings at Algonquin, a small village near here.

Oklahomans to Go to Cuba.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 19.—The project of raising a regiment in Oklahoma to join the Cuban insurgents appears to be a much more serious affair than at first supposed. The movement is quite formidable.

An Ex-Mayor Goes Insane.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—James P. Gordon, ex-Mayor of St. Paul, Neb., has been committed to the Highlands insane asylum. His insanity was caused by business reverses.

Murdered Two Over Cards.

MARION, Ill., Aug. 19.—Fred Hisholin has shot and instantly killed William Malke and William Heed with a double-barreled shotgun, in a quarrel over a game of cards.

GOMEZ REPORTED DEAD.

Spanish Soldiers Rapidly Dying Off in Cuba—Country in Bad Condition.

HAVANA, Aug. 19.—The sickness among the Spanish troops does not abate. A battalion of the Guadalupe regiment, quartered at Mayari, province of Santiago de Cuba, reports that six officers have died within a few days. The volunteers display no enthusiasm. They are paid $30 in gold monthly while serving.

Reports from all the provinces concur that the economic condition of the country grows worse daily. It is impossible to obtain an advance to pay laborers on the plantations.

A Tampa special says: Reports from Cuba are that General Maximo Gomez has died from consumption. Other reports are that he died from the effects of a wound.

The Autonomist party has held a meeting in Havana, called by Marcos

Garcia, to ask Spain to give Cuba autonomy. Cubans here deny that Gomez was ever afflicted with consumption, and as the report is not official, they attach no importance to it.

Plant Burned and Firemen Injured.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 19.—Fire starting in the engine room of the Patent Steel Whip company destroyed stock and machinery and the 3-story brick and frame building, entailing a loss of $20,000 on stock and machinery and $10,000 on the building. A brick wind blew sparks two blocks off and burned three 1-story frame dwellings and set fire to other houses. A brick wall fell on 12 men, who were standing on a roof that caved in. Ex-Fire Chief R. Q. King had three ribs broken, also internal injuries. Firemen Charles Thorp, John Weir and Harry Todd were burned and bruised, but not seriously.

Creek Indians Maltreat Women.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Aug. 19.—Near Arbaca a gang of Creek Indians and negroes, with several white outlaws, raided Samuel Norford's store and after completely gutting the place assaulted and otherwise mistreated five women in the neighborhood, two of whom will die.

Killed by Lightning.

BRADFORD, Pa., Aug. 19.—Deb Dikeman, while milking a cow at his barn at Bolivar Run, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. His son, who was standing near at the time, received a severe shock, and it is believed his injuries will prove fatal.

Can't Convict Holmes in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Patrick Quinlan, the janitor of Holmes' "castle," has been, with his wife, discharged from custody. There is now no prospect of Holmes ever being tried in Chicago upon evidence secured thus far.

Unearthed a Band of Counterfeiters.

CHATTANOOGA, Aug. 19.—Deputy Marshal Barnes has unearthed a band of counterfeiters who have been operating in a small shanty near Missionary Ridge.

PITH OF THE NEWS

It is probable that 3,000 garment workers employed in the "sweat shops" at Chicago will go on strike shortly.

A letter has been received at Sedalia, Mo., from J. C. Thompson, the fugitive cashier of the First National bank, in which he says that he has taken out naturalization papers and has become a citizen of the republic of Mexico.

The inquest on the body of Nellie Pitzel, the younger of the two girls believed to have been murdered by the notorious Holmes, has been concluded at Toronto. The jury returned a verdict of wilful murder against Holmes.

State Senator John F. O'Malley, who has been under indictment at Chicago since November, 1894, for interfering with voters and shooting a hack driver, has been released on bonds. Judge Baker quashed the indictment because of several technical irregularities.

James A. Beale's dead body has been found at Charlottesville, Va., with a pistol shot in the head. He is supposed to have committed suicide. Beale was arrested a few days ago on the charge of murder, preferred by a woman who turned out to be insane.

Miss Jennie Montgomery of Pittsburgh has caused the arrest at Omaha of W. Thomas Fisher of Sharpsburg, Pa., for threatening to kill her.

Burglars got $600 in stamps out of the Fon du Lac (Wis.) postoffice. They were unable to open a small safe containing $3,500.

The trial of Theodore Durrant for the murder of Blanch Lamont is in its sixth week at San Francisco, and still no jury has been secured.

The jury in the trial of Dr. Duestrow, the St. Louis millionaire, charged with murdering his wife and family, disagreed and were discharged.

Michael Tady, who assaulted Mary Miller, a 6-year-old girl in Chicago, was saved from lynching only by the timely arrival of a dozen policemen.

After three months' continuous investigation the grand jury at Hannibal, Mo., has found a true bill against Dr. Millionaire Stillwell.

Charles Ware of Toledo was killed while riding a bicycle between two tracks on the Lake Shore railroad, near Swanton, Ind., by being drawn under the train wheels by the suction.

The hacienda of Jose Veraguna, near Ures, Mexico, was attacked by a band of 25 Yaqui Indians. They killed three cowboys employed on the hacienda, and burned a large grain storehouse.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Gray, Jackson square, a daughter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Leek, Seventh street, a daughter.

The trolley wire was down at the Second street switch yesterday morning, but the cars "skated" through.

A party of about a dozen left on the morning train to join the Rochester Elks on their excursion to Rock Point.

A colored barber of Washington street is said to have been captured in Cupid's net, and ere long will lead a local lady to the altar.

Frank and Ollie Sebring, with their families, have moved back from the camp ground. The Stevenson family have returned to Wellsville.

A number of young people from this city will attend a party to be given at the home of Miss Edna Garry, Wellsville, on Wednesday evening next.

The infant child of W. M. Barnes, Eighth street, died this morning. The remains were interred at Spring Grove cemetery at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

A large number of invitations are out for the dance to be given by the Tourist club in Chambers' hall, East End, this evening, and many are expected from the city proper.

George Mount went coon hunting on Saturday night and captured one member of the festive family. Coon hunting is not indulged in to the extent formerly noticed in this section.

Nancy B. Glenn, of Third street, departed this life this morning, about 9 o'clock, in the seventy-third year of her age. The remains will be interred at Mt. Lebanon, Ohio.

The Pittsburg Sunday Leader quotes Governor McKinley as visiting a prominent Republican of the Hog combine in that city Saturday night. The Leader man was evidently mistaken.

Another C. C. C. C. has been discovered. It is located in St. Paul, Minn., but of course its first name is not Ceramic City, so the wheelmen need not worry for fear somebody will get credit for Liverpool's work.

A number of the young lady friends of the members of the Alvin Social club surprised the latter at their rooms on Market street Saturday evening, and an informal hop was held. It was an enjoyable evening.

B. K. Fisher, the hotel man who was robbed of $2,700 while Buffalo Bill's show was in Dubois, Pa., will be remembered as a former proprietor of the Commercial House in Wellsville, and was well known in this city.

A movement is said to be on foot to have a gunboat and the naval reserves stationed at this point on the Ohio river, and the authority of the News Review states that something definite will be known regarding the matter soon.

The snagboat J. A. Woodruff was a great attraction yesterday morning, large crowds visiting the boat and looking through the truly tasty interior. The courteous officers and other employees showed every attention to the visitors.

Esquire Manley took the deposition of William Foyser on Saturday evening last, in conformity with instructions received from Prosecutor Speaker. Attorneys Brookes and McGarry were present at the taking of the disposition, and Doctors Ikirt and Taylor.

A number of strangers were upon our streets this morning, the looking men with an air of business prominent in their manner. Dame Rumor asserts that they are here in connection with the bridge project, and the rumor was traced to a reliable source later on.

George Stewart, son of R. F. Stewart, of the Grand, sustained a seriously bruised head and back by a fall on the pavement Saturday. He trod upon the festive banana peel and described the usual circle in the atmosphere. He is now looking for the man that dropped the peel.

The Junior Endeavor society of the Second Presbyterian church gave a lawn fete Saturday night, taking charge of it themselves for several hours. It was quite successful, the proceeds being about $25. It was conducted by the older members of the congregation later.

The paving of the sidewalks, as ordered by council some time since, where they are in bad repair, goes on merrily, but there are several places where the work should be done again. In one or two instances the newly laid pavement consists of broken brick, and at the corner of Second and Washington streets boards serve as an extra curb where the paving does not reach the curb proper.

W. C. Thompson's milk wagon became fastened in the new switch at the electric railway power house Saturday evening and for a time it looked as if there would be a blockade on the line. It was removed uninjured, however, with a little hard work. The switch has been the source of a number of similar accidents in the past few weeks, owing to its being planked, but is a great convenience to the street railway men and passengers.

THE MIDNIGHT TRAIN

Strikes a Surrey at Cook's Ferry

AND TOTALLY DEMOLISHES IT

Frank and Mortimer Smith, Sam Heston and a Man Named Kine Were the Occupants and Had Narrow Escapes. Were Here Yesterday.

The midnight train on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh last night came near adding another fatality to those for which it is responsible.

Frank and Mortimer Smith, of the Hotel Columbia, Beaver Falls, accompanied by two men whose names were not learned, drove to Frankfort Springs yesterday and then to this city, and about 11:30 o'clock they turned their faces homeward. They were making the trip in a survey and met with no mishap until they reached Cook's Ferry. Just as they were crossing the track they discovered the midnight train bearing down upon them. It was only a short distance from the carriage and instead of going forward they quickly turned the horses back and leaped out in time to escape a terrific crash. The survey had been turned just far enough to escape the engine, but the steps of the smoker caught the vehicle and almost totally destroyed it.

The horses were uninjured, and the engineer did not know there had been an accident until they reached this city, and a brakeman discovered that a part of the step on one of the cars had been torn off in the collision. They sent a message back to solve the mystery and learned of the accident.

The survey was a new one and cost $150. It was the property of the Smith brothers. The quartet had narrow escapes, and one of the strangers refused to give his name, as well as that of the other man, when seen by a NEWS REVIEW reporter today. Detective Shiffer learned that one man was named Sam Heston and the other Kine.

SHE WEARETH MOURNING

In Consequence of Her Loss, and Will Not Be Comforted.

It will be remembered that a number of mighty Nimrods and skillful fishermen from East Liverpool were camped out along the shores of the beautiful Potomac river not long since, and wonderful stories of their success and prowess, by field and flood, were published in the columns of the daily press. It now transpires that one of them shot a beautiful fox squirrel, and in order to convince his Liverpool sweetheart that he was and is a mighty hunter, sent the bushy tail of the aforesaid squirrel to her by express. The lady was delighted with the present, and had it mounted on a gold base, after passing through the hands of a skillful taxidermist. Some base wretch invaded her home the other evening, and attracted no doubt by the gold mounting on the base of the tail, carried off the trophy. And now the love stricken maiden mourneth and refuseth to be comforted, and will pay a snug reward for the return of the property, by the thief, and no questions will be asked.

We May Name Him.

He has run up quite a snug bill with a poor widow lady, who has been doing his washing and ironing for some time, and he now refuses payment, asserting that the lady cannot compel him to meet his indebtedness. He calls himself a society young man, sports good clothes and takes his best girl to the ice cream parlor almost every evening. He makes good wages and can meet this debt if he so desires. And he will do well to settle at once, or he will be published in such a manner as will cause him to hide his unmanly head and depart from the city he has disgraced. I mean what I say, and will spend money liberally, in case of need, to expose the fellow. I have paid for this local item gladly, and will do much more, in case of necessity, to show him up in his true colors. I understand that he is engaged to be married, and I pity the poor girl who unites herself with such a poltroon.

They Are Beauties.

We have reference to the programs which are being turned out for the Young Men's Christian association lecture course. Of course they come from the job department of the NEWS REVIEW, and their beauty and superior workmanship is easily accounted for when you take into consideration the fact that the NEWS REVIEW employs none but skillful job hands and thoroughly competent pressmen, paying them living wages, and earning their good will and respect by according them fair treatment.

Members of E Company.

Every member of this military company must be present on Thursday night next, as important work will receive attention. There is still a vacancy in the place of fifth sergeant, and some good and true soldier, who pays attention to drill and discipline, will receive this position at the hands of Captain Walter Supplee. On Thursday night of this week there will be drill in platoon movements, and each and every member must take part therein. The encampment at Newark promises to be a delightful one, as we understand that the drill ground is a beauty and that every attention will be paid to the comfort of the rank and file. E company should be in good condition for this outing, and no doubt will be, as the captain is working energetically with this end in view.

As Usual.

The committee on printing of the Trades Assembly of East Liverpool met on Saturday night last, for the purpose of considering the bids for the printing of 5,000 eight page programs, in connection with the grand turnout and jubilee of Labor Day. The contract was of course awarded to the NEWS REVIEW, which is always and ever satisfied with legitimate profits and which never takes advantage of such surroundings, in order to charge unjust or exorbitant prices. The programs will be neat and tasty and will prove a decided advantage to the advertisers patronizing it.

Labor Day.

The 2d of September promises to be a red-letter day in the history of East Liverpool. The various committees connected with the organizations are composed of the right kind of material—workers from away back, and they will push matters to the limit in order to effect a complete and thorough success from every standpoint. Columbian park will be crowded, and the program will be a rich and varied one. We understand that Superintendent Andrews, of the street car line, is doing everything in his power to place matters in a satisfactory shape in so far as he is concerned in the matter of transportation.

Stop It at Once.

There are certain tough characters in town, young and old, who seem to think that they have a right to use profanity and vulgarity at their own sweet will, upon our public thoroughfares, much to the disgust of lady pedestrians and decent citizens. Mayor Gilbert is respectfully requested to see that the roundsmen of the city gather in all such offenders, when his honor can add to the pleasure and comfort of law-abiding citizens by putting the limit of the law against such blackguards, teaching them an effective lesson, and one which they will not be apt to forget.

Will Reunite.

The combined reunion of the Sixty-Second and Seventy-Seventh Ohio volunteer infantry, and Company B, of the Ninth Ohio volunteer cavalry, and the ex-prisoners of war of Washington county, will be held at Beverly, Ohio, September 4, 5 and 6. A splendid program has been marked out by the old vets and an enjoyable time is anticipated. Sardine Eoff, John Parke, William Arthurs and Jacob Reed, of East Liverpool, were members of the famous Seventy-Seventh regiment, and they contemplate taking in this reunion.

Have a Care.

There are bicycle riders and bicycle riders. Some of the riders are careful of the rights of pedestrians, and keep a keen watch for the safety of the foot passengers, observing to the letter the ordinance of the city as to ringing bells and speed on crossings. Others pay no attention to law or anything else but their own selfish gratification, and the only right treatment to be accorded this latter class is to call them down and compel them to step up before the mayor and pay their snug fines.

Don't Forget It.

Of course you want to have an enjoyable time, and of course you can have the same to your heart's content, oh ye young men and maidens of East Liverpool, by attending the picnic at Rock Point on Tuesday, Aug. 27. Tickets can be had at Alvin Bulger's drug store and at the Atlantic Tea company store. Rock Point is a delightful retreat, and the indications are that a great crowd will attend this picnic.

Dandy Nice Fish.

A disciple of Isaak Walton caught a beauty this morning, near Walker, the fine fellow pulling down the scales at 12 pounds. The lucky fisherman asserts that he thought he had hooked a whale when the fish struck his hook, and there was a battle royal before he succeeded in landing his prize.

Death Claims a Child.

The three-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Cartwright, Sixth street, died last night after an illness with cholera infantum. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning from the Cartwright residence, with interment in Riverview cemetery.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—E. M. Crosser was a Pittsburgh visitor today.

—Thomas Croxall left this morning for Kokomo, Ind.

—George Parry and Frank Stewart are Elwood, Pa., visitors today.

—George Anderson, of Pittsburgh, spent Sunday with friends in this city.

—Will Blythe and family went to Wellsburg, W. Va., this morning, to visit relatives.

—Charles Murphy went to Salem this morning to arrange for the opening of his store there.

—Mrs. Herbert Smith and Miss Laura Tompkins will leave this week for a visit with friends in Kittanning, Pa.

—Miss Birdie Rose, of Empire, Jefferson county, is visiting at the home of her cousin, John Rose, Jefferson street.

—W. H. Moon and wife returned this morning from New Brighton, where Mrs. Moon spent a week with relatives.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, of Franklin avenue, accompanied their son on his return to Findlay this morning. The latter works for Bell brothers.

—Misses Bertha and Bernice Dunlap left this morning for a visit with friends in Cleveland. They will visit in Alliance on their way home.

ST. VINCENT'S BEER.

Mgr. Satolli Trying to Compromise the Troublesome Dispute.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—It is understood here that Mgr. Satolli is giving his attention to the question raised by the petition to himself for the suppression of the brewery conducted by the Benedictine monks at Beatty, Pa., with a view to harmonizing the differences so as to placate the complainants and at the same time not deal harshly with the ecclesiastics who conduct the brewery.

He is giving his attention to the petition not only from the point of view of the petitioners, but also considers the fact that the monks are native Germans who cannot see the harm in the drinking of beer made after the manner pursued in the fatherland. The effort will be to settle the dispute without any formal decision.

Resolutions of Condolence.

WHEREAS, In the inscrutable ways of Divine Providence, Brother Martin McKean, in the period of a successful and useful career, has been suddenly called from our midst to another and better life;

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Martin McKean, the church loses a true and devout Christian; his family a loving and devoted father; Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, B of E, a consistent and trusted member.

Resolved, That while humbly submitting to the will of God in all things, we deeply mourn his loss.

Resolved, That our warmest sympathies be extended to his family and friends in their sad bereavement.

Resolved, That Division No. 1, A. O. H. B. of E, tender their grateful thanks to the family and friends for their care and attention to our brother during his illness.

Resolved, That the charter of Division No. 1, A. O. H. B. of E, be draped in mourning for the period of 30 days; and be it

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the daily papers and also in our official organ, and that the same be spread on the minutes of Division No. 1, A. O. H. B. of E, and also a copy, expressed, be transmitted to the family of the deceased.

Among the Afflicted.

J. C. Allison is confined to his home on lower Fifth street with an attack of stomach trouble.

The infant child of Frank Sebring was very ill at the camp ground yesterday.

Robert Wharton, of the freight depot, is out after a severe illness.

Smallpox Is Staying.

Although it was generally supposed that smallpox had disappeared from Martin's Ferry, the death of a little child of William Gwinn is reported. The disease seems to be staying, despite the fight against it, and Liverpool people will be warned in time to stay away from that district.

Seriously Ill.

Mrs. D. J. Smith, of Mount Pisgah, has been quite seriously ill for the past few days, but is now pronounced somewhat better. The lady was taken ill on her way home from the late harvest picnic at Smith's grove, township line.

Ready For the Fair.

Local merchants who will exhibit at the Hookstown fair, which begins tomorrow, are busy today arranging their displays. There will be about as many Liverpool houses represented as in former years.

Quiet at City Hall.

There was not an arrest at city hall Saturday night, Sunday or today. A truly wonderful state of affairs. Chief Gill is still busy serving street paving notices.

Interlined "Celluloid" Collars and Cuffs turn water like a duck's back and show neither spot nor soil. They are not affected by perspiration, and always look as if right out of the box. When they get soiled you can clean them in a minute by simply wiping off with a wet cloth. These are but a few of the advantages of wearing the "Celluloid" Collars and Cuffs. There are many others that you will readily discover the first time you wear one.

They are the only waterproof interlined collars and cuffs made. Be sure to get the genuine with this trade mark.

TRADE MARK.
CELLULOID
clamped inside, if you desire perfect satisfaction. Made in all sizes and all styles. If you can't get them at the dealers, we will send sample postpaid, on receipt of price: Collars, 25 cents each. Cuffs, 50 cents pair. State size, and whether you want a stand-up or turned-down collar.

England Must Expect War.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—Considerable interest has been aroused here by the issue of an emergency letter from the war office, signed by the principal medical officer of the home department, asking the city authorities and the guardian boards whether in the event of war or invasion they will be prepared to allow the war department to utilize the public infirmaries for the mobilization of the army corps for home defense. The war office is reluctant, and it is impossible to obtain the reasons for the issuance of the letter.

Makes More Cars Necessary.

MONTREAL, Aug. 19.—The enormous yield of 58,000,000 bushels of grain which is expected from the crops of the northwest will be the biggest for six years, and will mean increased prosperity to the territories of the Dominion and necessitate some additions to the rolling stock of the Canadian Pacific railway to carry the cereals. How many new cars will be built is not stated, but the number is thought to be considerable.

Porter Sues for Libel.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—State Senator Charles A. Porter, who with C. L. Magee, David Martin, Governor Hastings and State Chairman Gilkeson, is leading the fight now waging in this city against United States Senator Quay, has instituted a civil suit against the Philadelphia Inquirer for libel, claiming damages in the sum of $100,000.

Operatives' Wages Raised.

WALTHAM, Mass., Aug. 19.—The operatives at the Boston manufacturing company's mills here were informed this morning that their wages would be increased from 4 to 10 per cent, the new schedule to take effect September 3. The advance is general throughout all the departments. The company employs 1,200 operatives.

Trick for the Supreme Bench.

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 19.—Influential friends of the administration are urging the selection of Judge John J. Jackson of the United States district court for the vacancy on the supreme bench caused by the death of Judge Howell E. Jackson. Judge Jackson is a Democrat, and was appointed to his present position by President Lincoln.

The French Fear Trouble.

PARIS, Aug. 19.—The Journal reports that the situation on the frontier is serious, owing to the aggressive attitude of the Germans, who have gathered to celebrate the victories of the Franco-Prussian war. The French are greatly agitated and excited over the matter, and trouble is feared.

Mother and Child Drowned.

GRAND HAVEN, Mich., Aug. 19.—The wife and little son of Arthur Francis of Siblewood, Ill., have been drowned in Spring Lake. The child was in bathing and got beyond his depth, when the mother went to his rescue and both were drowned.

MANAGERS AS PLAYERS

Both Sides of a Regular Annual Discussion.

O. P. CAYLOR'S BASEBALL GOSSIP.

Captain Oliver Tebeau the Bete Noire of the Umpires—Uncle Anson on a Still Hunt For New Pitchers—How Can the "Kicking" of Players Be Prevented?

Every year there arises a discussion over the merits or demerits of playing managers of ball teams. The question of course has its two sides, and each side has its warm advocates. Therefore it is by no means settled in the baseball public's mind that a club is better off to have its manager among its players than to have him as a nonparticipant in the game. St. Louis, Chicago, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and New York have managers who are active players. The other National league clubs employ managers who never put on a uniform unless in one or two instances, as in the case of Philadelphia, Baltimore, Brooklyn and Washington.

The excitement which comes from the great National league championship series marks President Young's task of supplying competent umpires a very hard and trying one. He has been experimenting all season in an effort to find a few Enslies, McQuidns or Lynches, but failure after failure has met him in the work. Beta Campbell, Galvin and Tuthill have dropped from the list, and others are officiating whose sole duty in life it seems to be to down the anathemas of rooters wherever they are assigned to umpire.

Mr. Young has long since learned the umpire do not grow on bushes and the art of umpiring a drug in the sporting market. It looks as easy as rolling of a log, and many are the men who learned differently when they tried it. Enslie Keefe of all the present League staff has given satisfaction this year to the team and spectators generally, but even they have not escaped scot free.

It is a notable fact that the majority of this year's umpires in the League have been pitchers at some time in their professional life. Enslie, Keefe, Galvin and O'Day are the prominent examples of a theory that a pitcher should make a good umpire. Snyder was a catcher. So was "Honest" John Kelley. Ferguson was an infielder, and I believe Lynch never played a professional game in his life. One of the best "finds" Mr. Young ever made was Stage, the professional sprinter of Cleveland, who served part of last season. His work was excellent, and general regard followed his resignation on account of illness.

The National league magnates believed after their legislation last spring that they had solved the umpire question and laid hit upon rules which would suppress the kicking on the field. They now find that the question is as far from being solved as ever. The system of fines which was adopted at the spring meeting was not answer. Umpires recognize them as excessive and refuse, except in rare cases, to inflict them. Players soon realized the weakness in the code and have taken advantage of it. In my opinion the only way to prevent useless wrangling on the field is to prohibit all questioning of umpires' decisions absolutely. But it would even then be uncertain whether the kicking could be suppressed.

There are ball players who kick quite a naturally the summer girl flirts. The manager who suggests a plan to suppress the class of players will merit the reverence of a million baseball patrons.

FOR LAW AND ORDER

RUFFIANISM SHALL NOT RULE

The Great Mass of Law Abiding Residents of East Liverpool are Determined That Ruffians and Ruffianism Shall be Relegated to a Back Seat—Justice Must and Shall be Meted Out to Offenders.

The late horrible cutting affray in East Liverpool has awakened the great mass of law-abiding citizens to the fact that ruffianism must be suppressed in our midst, and that toughs and blackguards, men who draw and use a deadly weapon upon the slightest provocation, must have such punishment dealt out to them as will keep them in bounds for all time to come. If the aforesaid ruffians must gulp down liquid fire in the shape of intoxicants, in order that their cowardly hearts may be wrought up to such a pitch as to cause them to attempt to take human life, then must this worthless class be taught that drunkenness is no excuse for crime; but, upon the contrary, is rather an aggravation, and must be so construed by the law. Let ruffianism run rampant in brothels and saloons, and it will not be long until the inmates and habitués of such places do deadly work upon innocent and unoffending passers by.

The majesty of the law asserts that all men are innocent until they are proven guilty. If Patrick Densmore is an innocent man, then should he go free, without the shadow of a stain upon his life or character, in so far as this especial case is concerned. If he be proven guilty, as witnesses for the prosecution have already testified, then he should receive the full penalty of an outraged law. Even if Poyser recovers from the injuries sustained, and Patrick Densmore be proven to be his assailant, as already testified under oath, then Patrick Densmore should receive such a sentence as would prove a warning to all ruffians who take the law in their own hands. The assault upon Poyser and his friends was an awfully vicious one, and the evident intention of the assailant was to do murder. It was not his fault that Poyser does not now rest in the grave.

Roughs and toughs are sure to assemble in every prosperous city, and are sure to make their presence known in a hurtful manner. But the law can control them, and it is the part of every good citizen to see that the law is carried into effect.

Let me illustrate the bearing that the conduct of these toughs has upon the young boys in this city, by the portrayal of an actual incident which came under the writer's notice on Sunday morning. Three boys were assembled upon the sidewalk of one of our prominent thoroughfares. The eldest boy was about 13 years of age, his companions 11 or 12. The first designated had evidently been reading about the late cutting affray, and had provided himself with a knife, patterning closely after the weapon described in the daily press. The youngster held the ugly weapon in front of the face of one of his companions and thus addressed him:

The nearer approach of the writer caused the boys to cease from their delineation of the late trouble; but the words and actions demonstrate how closely our youth are identified with the good and evil which is daily occurring in our midst.

And, by the way, do you know, oh ye good citizens, that the rough and tough element are a nuisance from every standpoint. They make undesirable citizens in time of peace, and they are abject cowards in time of war. Every old soldier of the late war, they who did their duty in the ranks, will coincide with me in this statement.

And now let me speak a few words, words which can be made to effect wonderful good in the direction of law and order and good conduct in our midst. Go to the polls at our primaries; turn out en masse; and don't be satisfied even with this; drum your neighbors up and take them with you; let every man who loves his city, and who wishes it to prosper, to bloom and blossom like the rose, attend the primaries, and see to it that good men and true, men of upright character and clean lives, are placed in office, and then, and then only, will the law, in its majesty, be enforced in East Liverpool. And the true women in the city have a part to perform in this battle for right against wrong. See to it, ladies, that your husbands, fathers and sons attend to this duty. You are a power in the family and social circle. You can be, if you so desire, a power for great good in the municipal elections, even if you never cast a personal ballot. Exercise this power in the avenue pointed out, and leave the rest in the hands of Him who doeth all things well.

LAW AND ORDER.

HE HIT HARD.

Reverend Huston Speaks His Mind on the Liquor Question.

At the First Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday night, Reverend Huston, pastor, addressed an immense audience, taking as his subject the liquor traffic, denouncing it in unstinted terms, and holding it responsible, in a marked degree, for the crime and disorder existing in our midst. The speaker further spoke of the responsibility resting upon Christian citizens of East Liverpool, asserting that God would not hold them blameless for such a condition of affairs. He further held that it is the bounden duty of true men and good citizens to place in nomination the right kind of men for municipal offices, men who know the law and will enforce it to the letter. He urged all good citizens to make their presence known at the primary elections, and thus aid in the matter of right and reform. The reverend gentleman spoke of the late horrible cutting affray in Dew Drop alley, and painted such a picture of the scene as to cause a decided sensation among his hearers, who were listening to his curt and incisive sentences with wrapt attention. One prominent and aggressive citizen remarked, at the close of the services: "That was the right kind of an address. It was pithy and to the point; and, mark my words, it will be conducive of good and will aid in forcing an issue which has long been needed in East Liverpool."

THE RECHABITES.

They Were Out in Force on Sunday Morning.

St. Stephen's church was crowded on Sunday morning, and the Rechabites, Favorite and Liberty tents, turned out in strong numbers to hear Reverend O'Meara address them. The text chosen was from the fifth chapter and sixteenth verse of Paul's letter to the Ephesians—"Redeeming the time." After the beautiful preparatory service, the rector addressed his audience in a truly eloquent manner, conducive of great good, if the subject matter could but be woven and warped into their every day lives and conduct. The speaker painted, in words of burning earnestness, the selfish and unselfish life of individuals, warning his hearers against the first named, and urging them to receive and accept the latter, patterning after the life and character of the blessed Jesus, the very essence and embodiment of unselfishness and love for humanity. He welcomed the Rechabites in warm terms of welcome, praised them for the good work already accomplished by and through their society, and urged them to renewed efforts for the redemption of souls, through Jesus. The occasion will long be remembered with pleasure by those who were present, and there is not the shadow of a doubt that good seed was sown, which, in God's good time, will bring forth an abundant harvest.

SENT TO HER HOME.

Mrs. William Smith Found Humane People in This City.

Mrs. William Smith, the Allegheny woman whose story was given in the News Review Saturday, was sent to Pittsburgh by Trustee Beardmore after she had been provided with the first square meal she had had in several days. It was further learned that her husband had sold his skiff to a Wellsville man, and after asking him for money and being refused she sat on the bank all of Friday night in that town and was threatened with rough treatment by some of the toughs. Fortunately for these brutes the police did not hear of their threats.

Mrs. Smith is an English woman and lived with her husband at Walker's. She was so weak when she reached this city that she could hardly speak and her shoes were worn through, exposing her feet, which were badly blistered.

CAPTURED A PRIZE.

A Liverpool Horse Won at Lisbon Saturday.

FOR A FOOTBALL TEAM

Efforts Being Made by the Association Boys.

GOOD PLAYERS CAN BE HAD

A move is now on which may result in East Liverpool having a foot ball team, and one that will be hard to beat.

Members of the Young Men's Christian association are urging the formation of a team, and have their eye on some good players, who could be secured with little trouble and not much expense. Among these are Breneman and Suediker, of the Ohio State university, Stevenson, of the West Virginia university, Forner, of Bethany. These are players who have shown good qualities and who would play well together. The team may be organized, although it is yet but talk among the association boys. East Liverpool should have the club, and the boys will no doubt find plenty of backing if they make the attempt.

The Goodwin pottery team announce their willingness to play ball with any pottery team in the city for blood or cash.

Probably there are few aware of the existence of a base ball pool in the city, but it is known that there are several operating at the present time. One young man who has chosen Baltimore for this week, but lamented because he did not secure the Cleveland team, said last night that he was more than eight dollars ahead of the deal.

The Young Men's Christian association field day has been decided upon for Sept. 5, at Columbian park. Invitations to all the associations in this section have been sent out and a big crowd is expected. The necessary apparatus for pole vaulting and other gymnastic exercises has been erected, and the boys are taking daily practice.

Those interested in amusements are remarking that the big events of the season will be bunched. With the Lisbon races on Aug. 29, Buffalo Bill on Aug. 30, Labor Day Sept. 2, Young Men's Christian association field day probably Sept. 5, and dedication of the new central school building on Sept. 6. There will be plenty to occupy the spare time of Liverpool people.

There was a hot glove fight in a private club room of East Liverpool on Saturday night. The affair was brought off in consequence of a dispute over the respective pugilistic merits of the rival candidates for fistie honors. The affair was conducted strictly under Marquis of Queensbury rules and was eventually decided a draw.

The next game between the Young Men's Christian Association club and the Shamrocks promises to be an exceedingly exciting and interesting one. Each club has now a victory on their respective records, and the third contest may settle the question of supremacy. It was originally understood that but three games would be played, but now the assertion is made that a series of five games will be played. Be this as it may, the coming game is sure of strong patronage, as each club has a lot of backers and friends, and they will no doubt be on hand to cheer their favorites to victory. We understand that the management of the respective organizations are doing everything in their power to strengthen their clubs. Let the motto of the contestants be "fair play, and may the best and most skillful players win."

TRAPPE SUSPENDED.

He Received Official Notice From League Officials.

Frank Trappe, the Cleveland rider who was recently made a member of the C. C. C. C. racing team, has received official notice of his suspension and for 30 days he can not ride in races sanctioned by the League of American Wheelmen. The L. A. W. Bulletin this week publishes a notice of his suspension because of the Dayton races on July 30.

This will have no effect on the winning of the cup by Hale, Trappe and Irons at Pittsburgh, as he had not at that time been notified.

The Labor Day people will have to secure the sanction of the L. A. W. if they expect C. C. C. C. racers in the contests on Labor Day.

Among the racers in the Lisbon tournament will be two East End

boys, E. H. Laughlin and Charles Herbert. It is possible that other East End riders will enter in the contests.

RAIN IN SHEETS.

The City Stormswept Last Night—Little Damage Done.

The heaviest rain for some time was that which fell last night, and with it came a windstorm which seems to have been disastrous elsewhere, but light in this city. The storm struck the city about 10 o'clock, and the rain fell in sheets, and was blown in doorways and windows by fierce gusts of wind, while the streams from the gutters on several of the hill streets were too large to be confined to the curb, and covered the roadway. A few signs were blown down, one or two awnings ripped, and several trees broken, but so far as could be learned no serious damage resulted from the storm.

In the east, and especially in Pittsburgh, there was considerable loss of life and property, the former being mostly on the river.

STILL LOCKED UP.

The Street Sweeper Question Remains Unsettled.

The new street sweeper was still in the possession of the local freight agent at noon today, and Agent Hershey is still waiting patiently for the documents to make him the temporary owner of it.

As stated exclusively in the News Review Saturday the sweeper was refused to Agent Hershey, the sole cause being that he had no bill of lading for the machine. He telegraphed the Brooklyn street sweeper company, but until noon had received no reply to the message. It was intended to give the sweeper a trial Saturday evening, but the sudden hitch caused a postponement.

The new sweeper, although an ordinary, simple looking affair, looks like a serviceable machine, and will no doubt do the work claimed for it.

IN SQUIRES COURT.

A Few Cases to Disturb the Justices—Wet and Dry Goods.

In Squire Manley's court Harry Meador, Sr., sues Patrick Scullen for $7.30 and Elwood Pusey for $30.90. Both cases are set for trial at 7 o'clock on Thursday morning.

Before Squire Rose, H. E. Porter sues M. Bradshaw for $100.00, for dry goods purchased. Trial at 8 o'clock Thursday morning.

Martin Mason versus William Pilgrim, Sr., is a suit for $30 for horse hire dating back several years. It is being tried before Squire Morley and a jury of Edward Smith, John Kerr, C. A. Fowler, E. M. Crosser, Charles Berg and William Cartwright this afternoon.

AN IMMERSION.

East End People See a Religious Novelty.

When it was announced in the Second Methodist Episcopal church, East End, yesterday, that one of the new members would be immersed in the Ohio river at 6 o'clock, it created no little excitement and the result was that curiosity took a crowd of at least 150 people to the river shore to see the novel sight.

The applicant for this form of baptism, a young lady of East End, was dipped in the river by Rev. R. F. Sears and the usual ceremonies gone through with and then the crowd went to their various homes.

BROKE HIS NECK.

An Unknown Man Fell Off the Toronto Bridge on Saturday.

Late Saturday night or early Sunday morning an Italian laborer from New Cumberland fell off the bridge above Toronto and broke his neck.

At least that is the accepted theory, as the man was found dead under the bridge yesterday morning. As he had three half pint bottles of whiskey on his clothes it may be that he was drunk and was struck by a passing train. Several people from this city saw the remains of the man yesterday, and a large crowd gathered about the bridge after the body was found.

STOLE THE OARS.

Sneak Thieves at Work On the West Virginia Side.

Late last night some sneak thief got away with two pairs of oars on the West Virginia side of the river.

The oars were the property of Frank Finley and Henry Riley, and one pair was stolen from a blacksmith shop while Riley's disappeared from beneath the window alongside of the bed while he was sleeping. The parties are likely the ones who stole a skiff from Willard Mercer on the previous Saturday night, and which is still missing.

OFFICIALS WERE HERE

WORK WILL START BEFORE LONG

Representatives of the United States Government in East Liverpool, Accompanied by Representatives of the Coal Exchange and Harbor Committee.

Affairs are assuming a tangible and business-like shape in connection with the contemplated new bridge, to be erected at this point. This morning about 10 o'clock, Lieutenant Colonel Amos Stickney, of Cincinnati; Major Lockwood, of Louisville and Major H. L. Hoxie, of Pittsburg, representing the government of the United States, in company with Captain John F. Dravo, of Beaver, and Captain Hugh Moren, of Pittsburg, representing harbor lines, met in the office of J. E. McDonald and inspected plans and plans of the contemplated new structure. The party afterwards adjourned to the river bank, at the foot of College street, where Engineer Curry and Mr. McDonald supplied the representatives assembled with all desired information.

We have it from reliable sources that everything was harmonious in the meeting, that the representatives of the government are fully satisfied with the condition of affairs, while the members of the coal exchange and river representatives have not a word of protest to enter, in any shape, manner or form.

There can be nothing definite given as to when active work will be commenced on the bridge, further than that it will be in the very near future. There is no romance about the affair, however, as suggested by doubting Thomases. The structure will be erected and will prove to be a decidedly good thing for East Liverpool and the surrounding district.

TWO DEATHS.

Dependency and Drink In One Case at Lisbon.

Special to News Review.

LISBON, Aug. 19.—About 9 o'clock last night, at the residence of George Arter, a man named Martin Kraft, of Wheeling, died very suddenly. Deceased was about 40 years of age, and leaves a wife and two children. He came here to secure work in a cigar manufactory and took to drinking heavily. His wife has been notified. He is said to have been the son-in-law of one of Wheeling's wealthiest tobacco manufacturers.

Will Hamilton was seized with cramps while bathing at Alliance yesterday and was drowned. His father and mother reside at Gavers, some four miles from Lisbon, and the remains were taken there for interment.

The worst accident of the 12 or 15 that have occurred at the Lisbon tin mill, resulted this morning in Tom Redding, a young man who came last week from Warren, having the clothes blown from his body and receiving dangerous burns. The explosion was a terrible one.

TO THE INFIRMARY.

Jack, the Ripper, Goes to the Poorhouse a Second Time.

An old man known as Jack, the Ripper, who has resided some distance out of town along the California Hollow road, was sent to the county infirmary yesterday for the second time.

Just what his real name is cannot be learned. He was injured on the street railway about a year ago and went to the infirmary for several months. He has actually forgotten his own name.

Saturday night the patrol was called to the brewery, where he was found in a stupor, partly from the effects of liquor and partly from illness. He was taken to city hall and yesterday Trustee Beardmore provided him with a doctor and later at his own request gave him papers of admission to the poorhouse and started him on his journey.

OR For Canton.

Mr. Ed J. Owens and wife, Chris Horton and wife, Miss Corns and some other ladies, left this afternoon for Canton to take part in the state lodge convention of the Sons of St. George. A very enjoyable time is expected. Our townsman, Mr. Ed Owens, will be installed as worthy grand president of the state of Ohio.

Poyser's Condition.

The condition of William Poyser, who was stabbed by Patrick Densmore a week ago, and who, as noted elsewhere in the News Review today, was able to have his deposition taken Saturday night, is slightly better, and his physicians are hopeful.

A GREAT TRUTH.

Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, president of the board of police commissioners of New York, defends his enforcing of the Sunday laws in the September Forum by these wise words:

The spirit shown by the men and the newspapers who denounce us for enforcing the law is simply one manifestation of the feeling which brings about and is responsible for lynching, and for all the varieties of Whitecap outrage. The men who head a lynching party, and the officers who fail to protect criminals threatened with lynching, always advance, as their excuse, that public sentiment sanctions their action. The chief offenders often insist that they have taken such summary action because they fear lest the law be not enforced against the offender. In other words, they put public sentiment ahead of law in the first place; and in the second they offer, as a partial excuse for so doing, the fact that too often laws are not enforced by the men elected or appointed to enforce them. The only possible outcome of such an attitude is lawlessness, which gradually grows until it becomes mere anarchy. The one all important element in good citizenship in our country is obedience to law. The greatest crimes that can be committed against our government are to put on the statute books, or to allow to remain there, laws that are not meant to be enforced, and to fail to enforce the laws that exist. Many of the demagogues who have denounced us have reproached us especially because we took away "the poor man's beer," and have announced that law or no law, the poor man had a right to his beer on Sunday if he wished it. These gentry, when they preach such doctrine, are simply preaching lawlessness. If the poor man has a right to break the law as to get beer on Sunday, he has a right to break the law as to get bread on any day. It is as good to deal more important to the poor man that he should get fed on week days than that he should get drunk on Sundays. The people who try to teach him that he has a right to break the law on one day to take beer are doing their best to prepare him for breaking the law some other day to take bread. But as a matter of fact all the talk about the law being enforced chiefly at the expense of the poor man is the veriest nonsense and hypocrisy. We took especial care to close the bars of the big hotels. We shut every bar-room on Fifth Avenue as carefully as we shut every bar-room on Avenue A.

SEVEN WERE DROWNED

Fatal Outing of Three Families at Ocean City, Md.

WOMEN CAPSIZED A SAILBOAT.

They Got Scared When the Boat Carried and Rushed to One Side—Two of the Party Rescued—Heroic Efforts to Save the Others.

OCEAN CITY, Md., Aug. 19.—By the overloading of a small pleasure boat an entire family has been drowned and two other families are in mourning.

A party of farmers from the neighborhood of Frankford and Selbyville, Del., had a fish fry on Grey's creek, a branch of the Isle of Wight bay, with bathing, fishing and amusements. William Hudson carried a party of nine out sailing, and as the boat was about to come back the women of the party jumped screaming on the high side, capsizing the little craft, which was hardly large enough to carry five persons.

The following seven persons were drowned: William Storr, aged 45 years, Philadelphia; Laura Storr, his wife, aged 35, and his daughters, Ida May, aged 16, and Eva, aged 14; Myrtle Stevens, aged 16, a daughter of Joshua Stevens of Selbyville; Lina Hall, aged 19, and her sister, Lulu Hall, aged 14, daughters of Eliza Hall of near Frankford.

The capsizing occurred within 200 yards of the shore and in water seven feet deep. Mr. Storr had only one hand and was blind in one eye, but was an expert swimmer. He succeeded in getting his two daughters on the bottom of the boat and was getting his wife when the girls became scared and slipped off the boat and went to their parents and together the four perished. Hudson, who was sailing the boat, got the Hall girls on the boat and was trying to save Miss Stevens, when they slipped off and were drowned before he could get to them. Two other young ladies, who were in the boat, were rescued by a fisherman, who put off from the shore as the boat capsized.

Five Killed and Ten Injured.

MAHAFFEY, Aug. 19.—Five men were overcome and died from the effects of inhaling carbonic gas and ten others were affected by the deadly fumes at the big cut at Mahaffey, on the new line of the Pittsburgh and Eastern railroad. The dead are: William Stevens, aged 30 years, married, Philadelphia; William Buck, aged 40 years, married, crane-man, Nunda, N. Y.; James Quinn, aged 35 years, married, assistant foreman, Milford, Pa.; Charles Harrity, single, Larimer, Pa.; Antonio Keysare, Hungary.

Howard Disposed of in Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 19.—Detective Geyer of Philadelphia and W. A. Gary of the Fidelity Insurance company are here again. The former says that he has discovered that when Holmes left this city last year with the two Pitezel children he purchased only two half-fare tickets. This adds strength to his first theory, he says, that Howard Pitezel, the boy, was disposed of in this city.

Turkey on Her Dignity.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 19.—There is much irritation in official circles here on account of the recent events on the Bulgarian frontier, and instructions have been forwarded to the Ottoman representatives to request the powers to caution Bulgaria against permitting a recurrence.

A HUNT FOR GOLD.

Philadelphia Searching for a Dutch Sloop, Sunk a Century Ago.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—The steam tug John E. Mehrer, having on board a syndicate of 15 capitalists who have undertaken the task of locating and raising the British sloop of war De Braak, which was sunk by a sudden squall off the Delaware breakwater over a century ago, laden with a cargo of Spanish gold, has left here. The De Braak was a British sloop of war, captured by the Dutch.

A short time before her foundering she captured a Spanish ship from La Plata bound to Spain with a cargo of gold from the mines. Soon afterward, according to the reports of that time, she overhauled the St. Francis Xavier and transferred much precious metal to her own hold. The De Braak made for Cape Henlopen for water and went down in a sudden squall. Some of her crew escaped, but the majority perished. Reports then became frequent of the existence of the treasure, and ever since then they have been current.

Ransom Illegally Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Acting Attorney General Conrad has decided that the appointment of Hon. Matt Ransom as minister to Mexico was illegal, as at the time of his appointment he was a member of the United States senate from North Carolina. The constitution expressly prohibits a senator or congressman from being appointed to any civil office the emoluments of which have been increased while he was a member of congress. The salary of the minister to Mexico was increased $5,000 while Mr. Ransom was a senator.

Suicide of Coxey's Unknown.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 19.—"Dr. A. P. Bozaro, who committed suicide in this city by taking morphine, in the presence of his wife, traveled with Coxey's army last year as "Smith, the Unknown." He was a man of striking personality, having long, black, curly hair. He claimed to have been an Indian medicine man. On the disbanding of the army he came to Cleveland and began the practice of medicine. He left a long letter, in which he related numerous earthly woes, among them being domestic troubles.

One Killed and Two Injured.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Ontario and Western train No. 29, west-bound, crashed into two box cars which projected from a siding over the main tracks at Bernhart's bay, near Oneida. Fireman J. Cooper was instantly killed. Engineer Kinney and Head Brakeman J. Breed were badly injured.

All Caused by a Bad Negro.

MONTICELLO, Ark., Aug. 19.—While Jailer Wilson was feeding the prisoners here one, a negro, secured his pistol. Three others escaped. The negro badly wounded James Bennett, who attempted to stop him. A posse caught two of the prisoners, and a crowd are searching for the other two.

A FIGHT FOR CONTROL.

Factions Will Struggle For Supremacy at Springfield.

EACH SIDE IS MAKING CLAIMS.

Thurman Men Control the State Executive Committee and Brice Men the State Central Committee—Campbell Endorsed by County Conventions, but Won't Serve.

SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 19.—Since the selection of delegates in the different counties it is evident that there will be a close fight between the free silver men and their opponents on the organization of the Democratic state convention and the platform here tomorrow and Wednesday. The free silver men control the state executive committee, of which Allen W. Thurman is chairman, and the Brice men control the state central committee, of which M. A. Smalley is chairman. The free silver men claim that the returns from the county conventions show they have a majority of the delegates, but this is not conceded by the Brice men, who certainly have the better organization.

At the district meetings at 5 p. m. tomorrow it will be determined who will control the convention on Wednesday. If the free silver men secure the organization it is believed they will nominate Colonel James Kilbourne of Columbus. Thurman's candidate for governor.

A Cincinnati special says: When the returns from the county conventions showed such general endorsement of ex-Governor James E. Campbell for the nomination of governor at the Democratic state convention next week, he was seen at his home in Hamilton. He stated most emphatically that he could not and would not accept the nomination if it was tendered him unanimously. His only reason for declining was his present financial condition, which made it impossible for him to devote his time to politics.

His friends have secured a large supply of lithograph pictures of him and badges and men to nominate him. They say they will see that all his expenses are borne. It is understood that ex-Governor Campbell favors the nomination of Colonel James Kilbourne of Columbus, who is the candidate of the Thurmans and the free silver men. The Mahoning delegation will present the name of John H. Clark. The Hamilton county delegation voted to present the name of Judge Hiram D. Peck. It is said that John H. Thomas is a candidate for senator against Brice and is not wanting the gubernatorial nomination.

The returns from county conventions indicate unexpected victories for free silver. Some county conventions adopted resolutions condemning Senator Brice's financial views. Some counties that selected free silver delegates endorsed Brice, and nearly all endorsed James E. Campbell for governor. The counties selecting free silver delegates were Lake, Lawrence, Seneca, Muskingum, Medina, Fayette, Highland, Vinton and Jackson. For "sound money," Madison, Portage and Summit. The delegates from Angazie, Delaware, Cuyahoga and Trumbull counties are divided.

Two Sunstrokes at Cincinnati.
CINCINNATI, Aug. 19.—Two sunstrokes are reported here. John Strickler, a hod carrier, and George W. Britte, aged 65, retired, are the victims. It is believed neither can recover.

Opened in Columbus Today.

COLUMBUS, Aug. 19.—The national meeting of the Deutscher Kriegerbund opened in this city today. About 4,000 visitors and 1,000 delegates are in attendance.

SMALL OHIO HAPPENINGS.

An umbrella factory at Norwalk is seeking a location at Marion.
Sixteen thousand people attended the G. A. R. reunion at Harrisonville, the largest ever held in the county.
West Union and Cedar Mills have the only mail carrier in Adams county. Miss Josie Bayless is the carrier.
A mad dog belonging to Dr. Welch of Delaware bit ten other dogs, all of which are at large. The mad dog was shot.
John Huefford of North Amherst became despondent because his wife sued him for divorce and shot himself through the heart.

Mrs. John Fischer, aged 70, and her son John, aged 40, were killed by a New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio train at Coblenz.
Mamie Clark attempted to commit suicide at her boardinghouse in Columbus. She was despondent over her separation from her child.
The Ohio Chair company of Hillsboro was sold to Mr. A. C. Lewis of Cincinnati, as trustee for a syndicate, for $12,000, one-third cash and two-thirds in payments of one and two years.

John Sturgeon, a farmer, who allowed his horse to stand at a hitching post in Portsmouth for 14 hours while John accumulated a fat, was sent to the workhouse for cruelty to animals.
Two gangs of tramps entrenched near Marion have been broken up by police, and several arrested. The vagrants insulted women, and one night got drunk and paraded naked through the streets.

While H. Schwenck was raising an old barn at Bucyrus the structure gave way, burying himself and Miss Dagen, a relative. Miss Dagen is thought to be dangerously injured.
The Central Coal company of Toledo has started a cut in coal that is liable to bring on a first-class war between Toledo dealers. They are now selling coal at $4.50 per ton, a cut of 50 cents a ton.

Henry Ludeman, a prominent farmer living near Defiance, was killed while grinding a plowpoint on a stone driven by a wind engine. A piece of metal broke off and struck Ludeman in the forehead, killing him instantly.

Andrew Stile, living near Toledo, stole three bushels of potatoes. He was taken before Justice of the Peace Charles Kennedy, who gave him 30 days in jail and fined him $100 and costs. As he is unable to pay the fine, this will keep him in jail for 225 days.

One of the changes in the Central Union Telephone company, when they move into their new quarters at Toledo, is the removal of district headquarters from Columbus to Toledo. The district includes Ohio and part of Indiana and Michigan.

COLOS, Colombia, Aug. 19.—Military guards, consisting of Colombian soldiers, are being stationed along the line of the Panama canal.

THAT TRIP TO BOSTON.

Something Besides Low Rates Offered by the Pennsylvania Lines.
Boston excursionists over the Pennsylvania lines will be carried in the luxurious case to be expected on "the standard railway of America"—the standard in construction, equipment and operation. This merited distinction means that every requirement for comfortable and delightful traveling is provided on these lines. The parlor, sleeping and dining cars are up to date in style and finish. The Pennsylvania is an up-to-date railway system, the foremost in adopting practical ideas for the convenience and pleasure of patrons.

Stop over privileges will enable excursionists to visit places of summer sojourn along the Atlantic coast. Long Branch, Cape May, Asbury Park, Atlantic City, Ocean Grove and resorts on the New Jersey coast are on the Pennsylvania lines, and may be reached at slight expense from Philadelphia and New York by daily excursions thither during the season. Historic scenes in Philadelphia, including Independence Hall with old liberty bell and numerous interesting relics, the United States mint, the Masonic temple, Fairmount Park, the site of the Centennial, may be visited within the stop over limit.

Returning excursionists may make the trip over different routes to be selected at the time tickets to Boston are obtained. By this arrangement the return journey may be made via the Hudson river, Niagara Falls and other attractive places. If excursionists wish to reach home in the most expeditious manner they should obtain tickets with return portion reading over the Pennsylvania lines. When big crowds break up and the rush for home commences it should be remembered the Pennsylvania lines always meet all requirements, and handle passengers expeditiously and satisfactorily.

Excursion tickets to Boston account the Knights Templar Conclave will be sold to all applicants at ticket stations on the Pennsylvania lines from August 19 to August 25, inclusive. One half the excursion rate will be charged for tickets to be used by children under twelve and over five years of age. Connecting railways will also sell reduced rate tickets to Boston over these lines. Information concerning rates, time of trains and other details will be promptly furnished applicants to nearest Pennsylvania line ticket agent, or may be obtained by addressing F. Van Dusen, Chief Assistant General Passenger Agent, Pittsburgh, Pa.

NEXT ATLANTIC CITY EXCURSIONS.

The National Committeemen Give Their Preferences.

THEY WANT A SHORT STRUGGLE.

Republicans Unanimously For a Brief Fight—Democrats Favor It Unless the Free Silver Element Predominates—The Vote as Secured by a Paper in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Concerning the views of national committeemen on the question of a short or long campaign, the Times-Herald today says:

Thirty-eight national committeemen, 21 Democrats and 18 Republicans responded to questions asked by the Times-Herald concerning the policy of holding a short presidential campaign. The vote is now full enough to clearly indicate the results of the meetings which will shortly be held by the two national committees.

The Republican national committee will declare in favor of a short presidential campaign.

The Democratic National committee will decide in favor of a short presidential campaign, unless the free silver element predominates in the councils of the committee. The vote so far as it has been received and recorded by the Times-Herald is as follows:

Republican national committee—for a short campaign, 14; against a short campaign, 3; non-committal, 1. Total vote, 18.

Democratic national committee—for a short campaign, 10; against a short campaign, 6; non-committal, 4. Total vote, 20.

Report on the Columbia's injuries.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Acting Secretary McAdoo has made public the report of the board, consisting of Commodore Selfridge, Constructor Bowles and Chief Engineer Farmer, appointed to examine the cruiser Columbia as to damages she received when docked at Southampton. The report says that the docking "was generally careless and unskillful, as shown by entire neglect of the most elementary precautions to secure the uniform support of the keel of the ship."

A Monument to the Old Kaiser.

BELLEVILLE, Aug. 19.—There was splendid weather Sunday, which was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the battle of Gravelotte, which had so decisive an influence upon the Franco-Prussian war. The anniversary was signalized here by the laying of the foundation stone of the national monument to the late Emperor William I, by his grandson, Emperor William II, in the presence of many of the German sovereigns and other dignitaries.

The Pope Rescued Congratulations.

ROME, Aug. 19.—Sunday, which is the feast day of his patron saint, Joachim, the pope received the congratulations of the cardinals, and of the nobility, etc. He invited his visitors into his library and discussed for an hour upon the revival of religion in Italy, and upon various Catholic questions. He appeared to be in good health.

GOMEZ REPORTED DEAD.

Spanish Soldiers Rapidly Dying Off in Cuba—Country in Bad Condition.

HAVANA, Aug. 19.—The sickness among the Spanish troops does not abate. A battalion of the Guadalupe regiment, quartered at Mayari, province of Santiago de Cuba, reports that six officers have died within a few days. The volunteers display no enthusiasm. They are paid $30 in gold monthly while serving.

Reports from all the provinces concur that the economic condition of the country grows worse daily. It is impossible to obtain an advance to pay laborers on the plantations.

A Tampa special says: Reports from Cuba are that General Maximo Gomez has died from consumption. Other reports are that he died from the effects of a wound.

MAXIMO GOMEZ.

Garcia, to ask Spain to give Cuba autonomy. Cubans here deny that Gomez was ever afflicted with consumption, and as the report is not official, they attach no importance to it.

Plant Burned and Firemen Injured.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 19.—Fire starting in the engine room of the Patent Steel Whip company destroyed stock and machinery and the 3-story brick and frame building, entailing a loss of $20,000 on stock and machinery and $10,000 on the building. A brick wind blew sparks two blocks off and burned three 1-story frame dwellings and set fire to other houses. A brick wall fell on 12 men who were standing on a roof that caved in. Ex-Fire Chief R. J. King had three ribs broken, also internal injuries. Firemen Charles Thorp, John Weir and Harry Todd were burned and bruised, but not seriously.

Creek Indians Maltreat Women.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Aug. 19.—Near Arbaca a gang of Creek Indians and negroes, with several white outlaws, raided Samuel Norford's store and after completely gutting the place assaulted and otherwise mistreated five women in the neighborhood, two of whom will die.

Killed by Lightning.

BRADFORD, Pa., Aug. 19.—Deb Dikeman, while milking a cow at his barn at Bolivar Run, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. His son, who was standing near at the time, received a severe shock, and it is believed his injuries will prove fatal.

Can't Convict Holmes in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Patrick Quinlan, the janitor of Holmes' "castle," has been with his wife, discharged from custody. There is now no prospect of Holmes ever being tried in Chicago upon evidence secured thus far.

Unearthed a Band of Counterfeiters.

CHATTANOOGA, Aug. 19.—Deputy Marshal Barnes has unearthed a band of counterfeiters who have been operating in a small shanty near Missionary Ridge.

The Weather.

Generally fair; cooler in southern portion; westerly winds.

PITH OF THE NEWS

It is probable that 3,000 garment workers employed in the "sweat shops" at Chicago will go on strike shortly.

A letter has been received at Sedalia, Mo., from J. C. Thompson, the fugitive cashier of the First National bank, in which he says that he has taken out naturalization papers and has become a citizen of the republic of Mexico.

The inquest on the body of Nellie Pittel, the younger of the two girls believed to have been murdered by the notorious Holmes, has been concluded at Toronto. The jury returned a verdict of wilful murder against Holmes.

State Senator John F. O'Malley, who has been under indictment at Chicago since November, 1894, for interfering with voters and shooting a hack driver, has been released on bonds. Judge Baker quashed the indictment because of several technical irregularities.

James A. Beale's dead body has been found at Charlottesville, Va., with a pistol shot in the head. He is supposed to have committed suicide. Beale was arrested a few days ago on the charge of murder, perpetrated by a woman who turned out to be insane.

Miss Jennie Montgomery of Pittsburgh has caused the arrest at Omaha of W. Thomas Fisher of Sharpsburg, Pa., for threatening to kill her.

Burglars got $600 in stamps out of the Fon du Lac (Wis.) postoffice. They were unable to open a small safe containing $3,500.

The trial of Theodore Durrant for the murder of Blanch Lamont is in its sixth week at San Francisco, and still no jury has been secured.

The jury in the trial of Dr. Duestrow, the St. Louis millionaire, charged with murdering his wife and family, disagreed and were discharged.

Michael Tady, who assaulted Mary Miller, a 6-year-old girl in Chicago, was saved from lynching only by the timely arrival of a dozen policemen.

After three months' continuous investigation the grand jury at Hannibal, Mo., has found a true bill against Dr. Hearse and his wife for the murder of Millionaire Stillwell.

Charles Ware of Toledo was killed while riding a bicycle between two tracks on the Lake Shore railroad, near Swanton, Ind., by being drawn under the train wheels by the suction.

The hacienda of Jose Veraguan, near Ures, Mexico, was attacked by a band of 25 Yaqui Indians. They killed three cowboys employed on the hacienda, and burned a large grain storehouse.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Gray, Jackson square, a daughter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Leek, Seventh street, a daughter.

The trolley wire was down at the Second street switch yesterday morning, but the cars "skated" through.

A party of about a dozen left on the morning train to join the Rochester Elks on their excursion to Rock Point.

A colored barber of Washington street is said to have been captured in Cupid's net, and ere long will lead a local lady to the altar.

Frank and Ollie Sebring, with their families, have moved back from the campground. The Stevenson family have returned to Wellsville.

A number of young people from this city will attend a party to be given at the home of Miss Edna Garry, Wellsville, on Wednesday evening next.

The infant child of W. M. Barnes, Eighth street, died this morning. The remains were interred at Spring Grove cemetery at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

A large number of invitations are out for the dance to be given by the Tourist club in Chambers' hall, East End, this evening, and many are expected from the city proper.

George Mount went coon hunting on Saturday night and captured one member of the festive family. Coon hunting is not indulged in to the extent formerly noticed in this section.

Nancy B. Glenn, of Third street, departed this life this morning, about 9 o'clock, in the seventy-third year of her age. The remains will be interred at Mt. Lebanon, Ohio.

The Pittsburg Sunday Leader quotes Governor McKinley as visiting a prominent Republican of the Hog combine in that city Saturday night. The Leader man was evidently mistaken.

Another C. C. C. C. has been discovered. It is located in St. Paul, Minn., but of course its first name is not Ceramic City, so the wheelmen need not worry for fear somebody will get credit for Liverpool's work.

A number of the young lady friends of the members of the Alvin Social club surprised the latter at their rooms on Market street Saturday evening, and an informal how was held. It was an enjoyable evening.

B. K. Fisher, the hotel man who was robbed of $2,700 while Buffalo Bill's show was in Dubois, Pa., will be remembered as a former proprietor of the Commercial House in Wellsville, and was well known in this city.

A movement is said to be on foot to have a gunboat and the naval reserves stationed at this point on the Ohio river, and the authority of the News Review states that something definite will be known regarding the matter soon.

The snagboat E. A. Woodruff was a great attraction yesterday morning, large crowds visiting the boat and looking through the truly tasty interior. The courteous officers and other employees showed every attention to the visitors.

Esquire Manley took the deposition of William Poyer on Saturday evening last, in conformity with instructions received from Prosecutor Speaker. Attorneys Brookes and McGarry were present at the taking of the deposition, and Doctors Ikert and Taylor.

A number of strangers were upon our streets this morning, fine looking men with an air of business prominent in their manner. Dame Rumor asserts that they are here in connection with the bridge project, and the rumor was traced to a reliable source later on.

George Stewart, son of R. F. Stewart, of the Grand, sustained a seriously bruised head and back by a fall on the pavement Saturday. He trod upon the festive banana peel and described the usual circle in the atmosphere. He is now looking for the man that dropped the peel.

The Junior Endeavor society of the Second Presbyterian church gave a lawn fete Saturday night, taking charge of it themselves for several hours. It was quite successful, the proceeds being about $25. It was conducted by the older members of the congregation later.

The paving of the sidewalks, as ordered by council some time since, where they are in bad repair, goes on merrily, but there are several places where the work should be done again. In one or two instances the newly laid pavement consists of broken brick, and at the corner of Second and Washington streets boards serve as an extra curb where the paving does not reach the curb proper.

W. C. Thompson's milk wagon became fastened in the new switch at the electric railway power house Saturday evening and for a time it looked as if there would be a blockade on the line. It was removed uninjured, however, with a little hard work. The switch has been the source of a number of similar accidents in the past few weeks, owing to its being planked, but is a great convenience to the street railway men and passengers.

THE MIDNIGHT TRAIN

Strikes a Surrey at Cook's Ferry

AND TOTALLY DEMOLISHES IT

Frank and Mortimer Smith, Sam Heston and a Man Named Kine Were the Occupants and Had Narrow Escapes. Were Here Yesterday.

The midnight train on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh last night came near adding another fatality to those for which it is responsible.

Frank and Mortimer Smith, of the Hotel Columbia, Beaver Falls, accompanied by two men whose names were not learned, drove to Frankfort Springs yesterday and then to this city, and about 11:30 o'clock they turned their faces homeward. They were making the trip in a surrey and met with no mishap until they reached Cook's Ferry. Just as they were crossing the track they discovered the midnight train bearing down upon them. It was only a short distance from the carriage and instead of going forward they quickly turned the horses back and leaped out in time to escape a terrific crash. The surrey had been turned just far enough to escape the engine, but the steps of the smoker caught the vehicle and almost totally destroyed it.

The horses were uninjured, and the engineer did not know there had been an accident until they reached this city, and a brakeman discovered that a part of the step on one of the cars had been torn off in the collision. They sent a message back to solve the mystery and learned of the accident.

The surrey was a new one and cost $150. It was the property of the Smith brothers. The quartet had narrow escapes, and one of the strangers refused to give his name, as well as that of the other man, when seen by a News Review reporter today. Detective Shiffer learned that one man was named Sam Heston and the other Kine.

SHE WEARETH MOURNING
In Consequence of Her Loss, and Will Not Be Comforted.

It will be remembered that a number of mighty Nimrods and skillful fishermen from East Liverpool were camped out along the shores of the beautiful Potomac river not long since, and wonderful stories of their success and prowess, by field and flood, were published in the columns of the daily press. It now transpires that one of them shot a beautiful fox squirrel, and in order to convince his Liverpool sweetheart that he was and is a mighty hunter, sent the bushy tail of the aforesaid squirrel to her by express. The lady was delighted with the present, and had it mounted on a gold base, after passing through the hands of a skillful taxidermist. Some base wretch invaded her home the other evening, and attracted no doubt by the gold mounting on the base of the tail, carried off the trophy. And now the love stricken maiden mourneth and refuseth to be comforted, and will pay a snug reward for the return of the property, by the thief, and no questions will be asked.

We May Name Him.

He has run up quite a snug bill with a poor widow lady, who has been doing his washing and ironing for some time, and he now refuses payment, asserting that the lady cannot compel him to meet his indebtedness. He calls himself a society young man, sports good clothes and takes his best girl to the ice cream parlor almost every evening. He makes good wages and can meet this debt if he so desires. And he will do well to settle at once, or he will be published in such a manner as will cause him to hide his unmanly head and depart from the city he has disgraced. I mean what I say, and will spend money liberally, in case of need, to expose the fellow. I have paid for this local item gladly, and will do much more, in case of necessity, to show him up in his true colors. I understand that he is engaged to be married, and I pity the poor girl who unites herself with such a poltroon.

D. B.

They Are Beauties.

We have reference to the programs which are being turned out for the Young Men's Christian association lecture course. Of course they come from the job department of the News Review, and their beauty and superior workmanship is easily accounted for when you take into consideration the fact that the News Review employs none but skillful job hands and thoroughly competent pressmen, paying them living wages, and earning their good will and respect by according them fair treatment.

Every member of this military company must be present on Thursday night next, as important work will require attention. There is still a vacancy in the place of fifth sergeant, and some good and true soldier, who pays attention to drill and discipline, will receive this position at the hands of Captain Walter Supplee. On Thursday night of this week there will be drill in platoon movements, and each and every member must take part therein. The encampment at Newark promises to be a delightful one, as we understand that the drill ground is a beauty and that every attention will be paid to the comfort of the rank and file. E company should be in good condition for this outing, and no doubt will be, as the captain is working energetically with this end in view.

As Usual.

The committee on printing of the Trades Assembly of East Liverpool met on Saturday night last, for the purpose of considering the bids for the printing of 5,000 eight page programs, in connection with the grand turnout and jubilee of Labor Day. The contract was of course awarded to the News Review, which is always and ever satisfied with legitimate profits and which never takes advantage of such surroundings, in order to charge unjust or exorbitant prices. The programs will be neat and tasty and will prove a decided advantage to the advertisers patronizing it.

Labor Day.

The 2d of September promises to be a red-letter day in the history of East Liverpool. The various committees connected with the organizations are composed of the right kind of material—workers from away back, and they will push matters to the limit in order to effect a complete and thorough success from every standpoint. Columbian park will be crowded, and the program will be a rich and varied one. We understand that Superintendent Andrews, of the street car line, is doing everything in his power to place matters in a satisfactory shape in so far as he is concerned in the matter of transportation.

Stop It at Once.

There are certain tough characters in town, young and old, who seem to think that they have a right to use profanity and vulgarity at their own sweet will, upon our public thoroughfares, much to the disgust of lady pedestrians and decent citizens. Mayor Gilbert is respectfully requested to see that the roundsmen of the city gather in all such offenders, when his honor can add to the pleasure and comfort of law-abiding citizens by putting the limit of the law against such blackguards, teaching them an effective lesson, and one which they will not be apt to forget.

Will Reunite.

The combined reunion of the Sixty-Second and Seventy-Seventh Ohio volunteer infantry, and Company B, of the Ninth Ohio volunteer cavalry, and the ex-prisoners of war of Washington county, will be held at Beverly, Ohio, September 4, 5 and 6. A splendid program has been marked out by the old vets and an enjoyable time is anticipated. Sardine Eoff, John Parke, William Arthurs and Jacob Reed, of East Liverpool, were members of the famous Seventy-Seventh regiment, and they contemplate taking in this reunion.

Have a Care.

There are bicycle riders and bicycle riders. Some of the riders are careful of the rights of pedestrians, and keep a keen watch for the safety of the foot passengers, observing to the letter the ordinance of the city as to ringing bells and speed on crossings. Others pay no attention to law or anything else but their own selfish gratification, and the only right treatment to be accorded this latter class is to call them down and compel them to step up before the mayor and pay their snug fines.

Don't Forget It.

Of course you want to have an enjoyable time, and of course you can have the same to your heart's content, oh ye young men and maidens of East Liverpool, by attending the picnic at Rock Point on Tuesday, Aug. 27. Tickets can be had at Alvin Bulger's drug store and at the Atlantic Tea company store. Rock Point is a delightful retreat, and the indications are that a great crowd will attend this picnic.

Dandy Nice Fish.

A disciple of Isak Walton caught a beauty this morning, near Walker, the fine fellow pulling down the scales at 121 pounds. The lucky fisherman asserts that he thought he had hooked a whale when the fish struck his hook, and there was a battle royal before he succeeded in landing his prize.

Death Claims a Child.

The three-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Cartwright, Sixth street, died last night after an illness with cholera infantum. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning from the Cartwright residence, with interment in Riverview cemetery.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Charles Murphy went to Salem this morning to arrange for the opening of his store there.

—Mrs. Herbert Smith and Miss Laura Tompkins will leave this week for a visit with friends in Kittanning, Pa.

—Miss Birdie Rose, of Empire, Jefferson county, is visiting at the home of her cousin, John Rose, Jefferson street.

—W. H. Moon and wife returned this morning from New Brighton, where Mrs. Moon spent a week with relatives.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, of Franklin avenue, accompanied their son on his return to Findlay this morning. The latter works for Bell brothers.

—Miss Bertha and Bernece Dunlap left this morning for a visit with friends in Cleveland. They will visit in Alliance on their way home.

Mgr. Satoili Trying to Compromise the Troublesome Dispute.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—It is understood here that Mgr. Satoili is giving his attention to the question raised by the petition to himself for the suppression of the brewery conducted by the Benedictine monks at Beatty, Pa., with a view to harmonizing the differences so as to placate the complainants and at the same time not deal harshly with the ecclesiastics who conduct the brewery.

He is giving his attention to the petition not only from the point of view of the petitioners, but also considers the fact that the monks are native Germans who cannot see the harm in the drinking beer made after the manner pursued in the fatherland. The effort will be to settle the dispute without any formal decision.

Resolutions of Condolence.

WHEREAS, In the inscrutable ways of Divine Providence, Brother Martin McKoon, in the period of a successful and useful career, has been suddenly called from our midst to another and better life;

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Martin McKoon, the church loses a true and devoted Christian; his family a loving and devoted father; Division No. 1, A. O. H. B. of E., a consistent and trusted member.

Resolved, That while humbly submitting to the will of God in all things, we deeply mourn his loss.

Resolved, That our warmest sympathies are extended to his family and friends in their sad bereavement.

Resolved, That Division No. 1, A. O. H. B. of E., tender their grateful thanks to the family and friends for their care and attention to our brother during his illness.

Resolved, That the charter of Division No. 1, A. O. H. B. of E., be draped in mourning for the period of 30 days and be it.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the daily papers and also in our official organ, and that the same be spread on the minutes of Division No. 1, A. O. H. B. of E., and also a copy, engrossed, be transmitted to the family of the deceased.

Among the Afflicted.

J. C. Allison is confined to his home on lower Fifth street with an attack of stomach trouble.

The infant child of Frank Sebring was very ill at the camp ground yesterday.

Robert Wharton, of the freight depot, is out after a severe illness.

Smallpox is Staying.

Although it was generally supposed that smallpox had disappeared from Martin's Ferry, the death of a little child of William Gwinn is reported. The disease seems to be staying, despite the fight against it, and Liverpool people will be warned in time to stay away from that district.

Seriously Ill.

Mrs. D. J. Smith, of Mount Pisgah, has been quite seriously ill for the past few days, but is now pronounced somewhat better. The lady was taken ill on her way home from the late harvest picnic at Smith's grove, township line.

Ready for the Fair.

Local merchants who will exhibit at the Hooktown fair, which begins tomorrow, are busy today arranging their displays. There will be about as many Liverpool houses represented as in former years.

Interlined "Celluloid" Collars and Cuffs turn water like a duck's back and show neither spot nor soil. They are not effected by perspiration, and always look as if right out of the box. When they get soiled you can clean them in a minute by simply wiping off with a wet cloth. These are but a few of the advantages of wearing the "Celluloid" Collars and Cuffs. There are many others that you will readily discover the first time you wear one.

They are the only waterproof interlined collars and cuffs made. Be sure to get the genuine with this trade mark.

England Must Expect War.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—Considerable interest has been aroused here by the issue of an emergency letter from the war office, signed by the principal medical officer of the home department, asking the city authorities and the guardian boards whether in the event of war or invasion they will be prepared to allow the war department to utilize the public infirmaries for the mobilization of the army corps for home defense. The war office is reticent, and it is impossible to obtain the reasons for the issuance of the letter.

Makes More Cars Necessary.

MONTREAL, Aug. 19.—The enormous yield of 58,000,000 bushels of grain which is expected from the crops of the northwest will be the biggest for six years, and will mean increased prosperity to the territories of the Dominion and necessitate some additions to the rolling stock of the Canadian Pacific railroad to carry the cereals. How many new cars will be built is not stated, but the number is thought to be considerable.

Porter Sues for Libel.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—State Senator Charles A. Porter, who with C. L. Magee, David Martin, Governor Hastings and State Chairman Gilkeson, is leading the fight now waging in this State against United States Senator Quay, has instituted a civil suit against the Philadelphia Inquirer for libel, claiming damages in the sum of $100,000.

Operatives' Wages Raised.

WALTHAM, Mass., Aug. 19.—The operatives at the Boston manufacturing company's mills here were informed this morning that their wages would be increased from 4 to 10 per cent, the new schedule to take effect September 3. The advance is general throughout all the departments. The company employs 1,500 operatives.

Urged for the Supreme Bench.

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 19.—Influential friends of the administration are urging the selection of Judge John J. Jackson of the United States district court for the vacancy on the supreme bench, caused by the death of Judge Howell E. Jackson. Judge Jackson is a Democrat and was appointed to his present position by President Lincoln.

The French Fear Trouble.

PARIS, Aug. 19.—The Journal reports that the situation on the frontier is serious, owing to the aggressive attitude of the Germans, who have gathered to celebrate the victories of the Franco-Prussian war. The French are greatly agitated and excited over the matter, and trouble is feared.

Mother and Child Drowned.

GRAND HAVEN, Mich., Aug. 19.—The wife and little son of Arthur Francis of Englewood, Ill., have been drowned in Spring Lake. The child was in bathing and got beyond his depth, when the mother went to his rescue and both were drowned.

MANAGERS AS PLAYERS

Both Sides of a Regular Annual Discussion.

Captain Oliver Tebeau the Bete Noire of the Umpires—Uncle Anson on a Still Hunt For New Pitchers—How Can the "Kicking" of Players Be Prevented?

Every year there arises a discussion over the merits or demerits of playing managers of ball teams. The question of course has its two sides, and each side has its warm advocates. Therefore it is by no means settled in the baseball public's mind that a club is better off to have its manager among its players than to have him as a nonparticipant in the game. St. Louis, Chicago, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and New York have managers who are active players. The other National league clubs employ managers who never put on a uniform unless in one or two instances, as in the Philadelphia, McCloskey of Louisville and Foutz of Brooklyn, when the uniform is donned to permit the manager to coach.

Last year Anson began the season as manager by sitting on the bench in citizen dress. It didn't work well in his case, and not till he took up his knickerbockers and went back upon the nine did he succeed in impressing his players with his strong personality. I presume, after all, it is not so much a question of playing or not playing as it is of the man's adaptation. Men like Anson, Doyle, Tebeau and Ewing will do better by taking part in each game and participating in the work of the team, be it good, bad or indifferent. But the Hansons, Seales and Schmels are not built for effective service in uniform.

Next to Anson the most successful manager among those who play on their teams is Captain Oliver Tebeau of Cleveland, more familiarly known as Patsy. Exactly where his successes is hard to decide. He is, however, what is called a fighter. When it comes to that quality, Anson must rank below him. The nearest rival he has in his peculiar methods is Manager Doyle of New York, who, I believe, at one time, was Tebeau's pupil. Patsy can heap more misery upon an umpire's life in one afternoon perhaps than any man who ever managed a ball team. He is the umpire's bete noire. With him kicking is professional life, and when he does kick at a decision it is no half hearted affair, but is full of his whole soul. On such occasions Mr. Tebeau's language is not always pure, simple and sweet. Indeed he has the reputation of being able to express himself on such occasions with more force than elegance.

This season he has been particularly unfortunate. Accident after accident has kept him off his nine. Perhaps I should express it as the toped did when he was brought before the judge for the sixth time. His honor scowled and thundered: "What! Drunk again?" "No, your honor."

The National league magnates believe after their legislation last spring that he had solved the umpire question and hit upon rules which would suppress the excessive kicking on the ballfield. They find that the question is as far from being solved as ever. The system of fines was not adopted at the spring meeting and was not adopted at the fall meeting. Umpires recognize them in rare cases to inflict them. Players soon realized the weakness in the code and have taken advantage of it. In my opinion the only way to prevent useless wrangling on the ballfield is to prohibit all questioning of umpires' decisions absolutely. But it would even then be uncertain whether the kicking could be suppressed.

There are ball players who kick quite naturally as a summer girl flirts. The man who will suggest a plan to suppress the class of players will merit the reverence of a million baseball patrons.

THE MIDNIGHT TRAIN

Strikes a Surrey at Cook's Ferry

AND TOTALLY DEMOLISHES IT

Frank and Mortimer Smith, Sam Heston
and a Man Named Kine Were the Occupants and Had Narrow Escapes.
Were Here Yesterday.

The midnight train on the Cleveland and Pittsburg last night came near adding another fatality to those for which it is responsible.

Frank and Mortimer Smith, of the Hotel Columbia, Beaver Falls, accompanied by two men whose names
were not learned, drove to Frankfort Springs yesterday and then to this city, and about 11:30 o'clock they turned their faces homeward. They were making the trip in a surrey and met with no mishap until they reached Cook's Ferry. Just as they were crossing the track they discovered the midnight train bearing down upon them. It was only a short distance from the carriage and instead of going forward they quickly turned the horses back and leaped out in time to escape a terrific crash. The surrey had been turned just far enough to escape the engine, but the steps of the smoker caught the vehicle and almost totally destroyed it.

The horses were uninjured, and the engineer did not know there had been an accident until they reached this city, and a brakeman discovered that a part of the step on one of the cars had been torn off in the collision. They sent a message back to solve the mystery and learned of the accident.

The surrey was a new one and cost $150. It was the property of the Smith brothers. The quartet had narrow escapes, and one of the strangers refused to give his name, as well as that of the other man, when seen
by a NEWS REVIEW reporter today.
Detective Shiffer learned that one man was named Sam Heston and the other Kine.

SHE WEARETH MOURNING

In Consequence of Her Loss, and Will Not Be Comforted.

It will be remembered that a number of mighty Nimrods and skillful fishermen from East Liverpool were camped out along the shores of the beautiful Potomac river not long since,
and wonderful stories of their success
and prowess, by field and flood, were published in the columns of the daily press. It now transpires that one of them shot a beautiful fox squirrel,
and in order to convince his Liverpool sweetheart that he was and is a mighty hunter, sent the bushy tail of the aforesaid squirrel to her by express. The lady was delighted with the present, and had it mounted on a gold base, after passing through the hands of a skillful taxidermist. Some base wretch invaded her home the other evening,
and attracted no doubt by the gold mounting on the base of the tail, carried off the trophy. And now the love stricken maiden mourneth and refuseth to be comforted, and will pay a snug reward for the return of the property, by the thief, and no questions will be asked.

We May Name Him.

He has run up quite a snug bill with a poor widow lady, who has been doing his washing and ironing for some time, and he now refuses payment, asserting that the lady cannot compel him to meet his indebtedness.
He calls himself a society young man,
sports good clothes and takes his best girl to the ice cream parlor almost every evening. He makes good wages and can meet this debt if he so desires. And he will do well to settle at once, or he will be published in such a manner as will cause him to hide his unmanly head and depart from the city he has disgraced. I mean what I say, and will spend money liberally, in case of need, to expose the fellow. I have paid for this local item gladly, and will do much more, in case of necessity, to show him up in his true colors. I understand that he is engaged to be married, and I pity the poor girl who unites herself with such a poltroon.

They Are Beauties.

We have reference to the programs which are being turned out for the Young Men's Christian association lecture course. Of course they come from the job department of the NEWS REVIEW, and their beauty and superior workmanship is easily accounted for when you take into consideration
the fact that the NEWS REVIEW employs none but skillful job hands and thoroughly competent pressmen, paying them living wages, and earning their good will and respect by according them fair treatment.

Members of E Company.

Every member of this military company must be present on Thursday night next, as important work will receive attention. There is still a vacancy in the place of fifth sergeant,

and some good and true soldier, who pays attention to drill and discipline, will receive this position at the hands of Captain Walter Supplee. On Thursday night of this week there will be drill in platoon movements,
and each and every member must take part therein. The encampment at Newark promises to be a delighful one, as we understand that the drill ground is a beauty and that every attention will be paid to the comfort of the rank and file. E company should be in good condition for this outing, and no doubt will be, as the captain is working energetically
with this end in view.

As Usual.

The committee on printing of the Trades Assembly of East Liverpool met on Saturday night last, for the purpose of considering the bids for the printing of 5,000 eight page programs, in connection with the grand turnout and jubilee of Labor Day.
The contract was of course awarded to the NEWS REVIEW, which is always and ever satisfied with legitimate profits and which never takes advantage of such surroundings, in order to charge unjust or exorbitant prices.
The programs will be neat and tasty and will prove a decided advantage to the advertisers patronizing it.

Labor Day.

The 2d of September promises to be a red-letter day in the history of East Liverpool. The various committees connected with the organizations are composed of the right kind of matterial—workers from away back, and they will push matters to the limit in order to effect a complete and thorough success from every standpoint. Columbian park will be crowded, and the program will be a rich and varied one. We understand that Superintendent Andrews, of the street car line, is doing everything in his power to place matters in a satisfactory shape in so far as he is concerned in the matter of transportation.

Stop It at Once.

There are certain tough characters in town, young and old, who seem to think that they have a right to use profanity and vulgarity at their own sweet will, upon our public thoroughfares, much to the disgust of lady pedestrians and decent citizens.
Mayor Gilbert is respectfully requested to see that the round-men of the city gather in all such offenders,
when his honor can add to the pleasure and comfort of law-abiding citizens by putting the limit of the law against such blackguards, teaching them an effective lesson, and one which they will not be apt to forget.

Will Reunite.

The combined reunion of the Sixty-
Second and Seventy-Seventh Ohio
volunteer infantry, and Company B,
of the Ninth Ohio volunteer cavalry,
and the ex-prisoners of war of Washington county, will be held at Beverly,
Ohio, September 4, 5 and 6. A splendid program has been marked out by the old vets and an enjoyable time is anticipated. Sardine Eoff, John Parke, William Arthurs and Jacob Reed, of East Liverpool, were members of the famous Seventy-Seventh regiment, and they contemplate taking in this reunion.

Have a Care.

There are bicycle riders and bicycle riders. Some of the riders are careful of the rights of pedestrians, and keep a keen watch for the safety of the foot passengers, observing to the letter the ordinance of the city as to ringing bells and speed on crossings. Others pay no attention to law or anything else but their own selfish gratification, and the only right treatment to be accorded this latter class is to call them down and compel them to step up before the mayor and pay their snug fines.

Don't Forget It.

Of course you want to have an enjoyable time, and of course you can have the same to your heart's content,
oh ye young men and maidens of East Liverpool, by attending the picnic at Rock Point on Tuesday, Aug. 27.
Tickets can be had at Alvin Bulger's drug store and at the Atlantic Tea company store. Rock Point is a delightful retreat, and the indications are that a great crowd will attend
this picnic.

Dandy Nice Fish.

A disciple of Isak Walton caught a beauty this morning, near Walker, the fine fellow pulling down the scales at 121 pounds. The lucky fisherman asserts that he thought he had hooked a whale when the fish struck his hook, and there was a battle royal before he succeeded in landing his prize.

Death Claims a Child.

The three-months-old child of Mr.
and Mrs. Ambrose Cartwright, Sixth street, died last night after an illness with cholera infantum. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning from the Cartwright residence, with interment in Riverview cemetery.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—E. M. Crosser was a Pittsburg visitor today.

—Thomas Croxall left this morning for Kokomo, Ind.

—George Parry and Frank Stewart
are Elwood, Pa., visitors today.

—George Anderson, of Pittsburg, spent Sunday with friends in this city.

—Will Blythe and family went to Wellsburg, W. Va., this morning, to visit relatives.

—Charles Murphy went to Salem
this morning to arrange for the opening of his store there.

—Mrs. Herbert Smith and Miss Laura Tompkins will leave this week
for a visit with friends in Kittanning, Pa.

—Miss Birdie Rose, of Empire, Jefferson county, is visiting at the home of her cousin, John Rose, Jefferson street.

—W. H. Moon and wife returned this morning from New Brighton, where Mrs. Moon spent a week with relatives.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, of Franklin avenue, accompanied their son on his return to Findlay this morning. The latter works for Bell brothers.

—Miss Bertha and Bernice Dunlap left this morning for a visit with friends in Cleveland. They will visit in Alliance on their way home.

ST. VINCENT'S BEER.

Mgr. Satoli Trying to Compromise the Troublesome Dispute.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—It is understood here that Mgr. Satoli is giving his attention to the question raised by the petition to himself for the suppression of the brewery conducted by the Benedictine monks at Beatty, Pa., with a view to harmonizing the differences
so as to placate the complainants and at the same time not deal harshly with the ecclesiastics who conduct the brewery.

He is giving his attention to the petition not only from the point of view of the petitioners, but also considers the fact that the monks are native Germans who cannot see the harm in the drinking of beer made after the manner pursued in the fatherland. The effort will be to settle the dispute without any formal decision.

Resolutions of Condolence.

WHEREAS, In the inscrutable ways
of Divine Providence, Brother Martin McKeon, in the period of a successful and useful career, has been suddenly called from our midst to another and better life:

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Martin McKeon, the church loses a true and devout Christian; his family a loving and devoted father;
Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, B of E, a consistent and trusted member.

Resolved, That while humbly submitting to the will of God in all things, we deeply mourn his loss.

Resolved, That our warmest sympathies are extended to his family and friends in their sad bereavement.

Resolved, That Division No. 1, A.
O. H. B. of E., tender their grateful thanks to the family and friends for their care and attention to our brother
during his illness.

Resolved, That the charter of Division No. 1, A. O. H. B. of E., be draped in mourning for the period of 30 days; and be it

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the daily papers and also in our official organ, and that the same be spread on the minutes of Division No. 1, A. O. H. B. of E., and also a copy, engrossed, be transmitted to the family of the deceased.

JOSEPH O'REILLY,
JOHN R. CANNON,
CHARLES L. GALLAGHER, Committee.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Aug. 18, 1895.

Among the Afflicted.

J. C. Allison is confined to his home on lower Fifth street with an attack of stomach trouble.

The infant child of Frank Sebring
was very ill at the camp ground yesterday.

Robert Wharton, of the freight depot, is out after a severe illness.

Smallpox Is Staying.

Although it was generally supposed that smallpox had disappeared from Martin's Ferry, the death of a little child of William Gwinn is reported.
The disease seems to be staying, despite the fight against it, and Liverpool people will be warned in time to stay away from that district.

Seriously Ill.

Mrs. D. J. Smith, of Mount Pisgah, has been quite seriously ill for the past few days, but is now pronounced somewhat better. The lady was taken ill on her way home from the late harvest picnic at Smith's grove, township line.

Ready For the Fair.

Local merchants who will exhibit at the Hookstown fair, which begins tomorrow, are busy today arranging their displays. There will be about as many Liverpool houses represented
as in former years.

Lightning Hot Drops—

Quiet at City Hall.

There was not an arrest at city hall
Saturday night, Sunday or today. A truly wonderful state of affairs. Chief Gill is still busy serving street paving notices.

Interlined "Celluloid" Collars and Cuffs ejected by perspiration, and always look as if right out of the box. When they get soiled you can clean them in a minute by simply wiping off with a wet cloth. These are but a few of the advantages of wearing the "Celluloid" Collars and Cuffs. There are many others that you will readily discover the first time you wear one.

They are the only waterproof interlined collars and cuffs made. Be sure to get the genuine with this trade mark

stamped inside, if you desire perfect satisfaction. Made in all sizes and all styles. If you can't get them at the dealers, we will send sample postpaid,

each. Cuffs, 50 cents pair. State size, and whether you want a stand-up or turned-down collar.

THE CELLULOID COMPANY,
427-29 Broadway, NEW YORK.

England Must Expect War.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—Considerable interest has been aroused here by the issue of an emergency letter from the war office, signed by the principal medical officer of the home department, asking the city authorities and the guardian boards whether in the event of war or invasion they will be prepared to allow the war department to utilize the public infirmaries for the mobilization of the army corps for home defense. The war office is reticent, and it is impossible to obtain the reasons for the issuance of the letter.

Makes More Cars Necessary.

MONTREAL, Aug. 19.—The enormous yield of 38,000,000 bushels of grain which is expected from the crops of the northwest will be the biggest for six years, and will mean increased prosperity to the territories of the Dominion and necessitate some additions to the rolling stock of the Canadian Pacific railroad to carry the cereals. How many new cars will be built is not stated, but the number is thought to be considerable.

Porter Sues for Libel.

The French Fear Trouble.

PARIS, Aug. 19.—The Journal reports that the situation on the frontier is serious, owing to the aggressive attitude of the Germans, who have gathered to celebrate the victories of the Franco-Prussian war. The French are greatly agitated and excited over the matter, and trouble is feared.

Mother and Child Drowned.

GRAND HAVEN, Mich., Aug. 19.—The wife and little son of Arthur Francis of Englewood, Ill., have been drowned in Spring Lake. The child was in bathing and got beyond his depth, when the mother went to his rescue and both were drowned.

MANAGERS AS PLAYERS

Both Sides of a Regular Annual Discussion.

O. P. CAYLOR'S BASEBALL GOSSIP.

Captain Oliver Tebeau the Bete Noire of the Umpires—Uncle Anson on a Still Hunt For New Pitchers—How Can the "Kicking" of Players Be Prevented?

Every year there arises a discussion over the merits or demerits of playing managers of ball teams. The question of course has its two sides, and each side has its warm advocates. Therefore it is by no means settled in the baseball public's mind that a club is better off to have its manager
among its players than to have him as a nonparticipant in the game. St. Louis, Chicago, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Pittsburg
and New York have managers who are active players. The other National league clubs employ managers who never put on a uniform unless in one or two instances,
as Irwin of Philadelphia, McCloskey of Louisville and Foutz of Brooklyn, when the uniform is donned to permit the manager to coach.

Last year Anson began the season as manager by sitting on the bench in citizen dress. It didn't work well in his case, and not till he took up his knickerbockers and went back upon the nine did he succeed in impressing his players with his strong personality. I presume, after all, it is not so much a question of playing or not playing as it is of the man's adaptation. Men like Anson, Doyle, Tebeau and Ewing will do better by taking part in each game and participating in the work of the team, be it good, bad or indifferent. But the Hanlons, Seales and Schmeizels are not built for effective service in uniform.

Next to Anson the most successful manager among those who play on their nine
is Captain Oliver Tebeau of Cleveland, more familiarly known as Patsy. Exactly where his successes lie is hard to decide. He is, however, what is called a fighter. When it comes to that quality, Anson must rank below him. The nearest rival he has in his peculiar methods is Manager Doyle of New York, who, I believe, at one time, was Tebeau's pupil. Patsy can hear more misery upon an umpire's life in one afternoon perhaps than any man who ever managed a ball team. He is the umpire's bete noire. With him kicking is professional life, and when he does kick at a decision it is no half hearted affair, but is full of his whole soul. On such occasions
Mr. Tebeau's language is not always pure, simple and sweet. Indeed he has the reputation of being able to express himself on such occasions with more force than elegance.

This season he has been particularly unfortunate. Accident after accident has kept him off his nine. Perhaps I should express it as the torper did when he was brought before the judge for the sixth time. His honor scowled and thundered:
"What! Drunk again?" "No, your hon-
